The Issuer has confirmed to the Dealers named under "Subscription and Sale" below that this Base Prospectus (including for this purpose, each relevant Final Terms) contains all information which is (in the context of the Programme, the issue, offering and sale of the Notes) material; that such information is true and accurate in all material respects and is not misleading in any material respect; that any opinions, predictions or intentions expressed herein are honestly held or made and are not misleading in any material respect; that this Base Prospectus does not omit to state any material fact necessary to make such information, opinions, predictions or intentions (in the context of the Programme, the issue and offering and sale of the Notes) not misleading in any material respect; and that all proper enquiries have been made to verify the foregoing.

No person has been authorised to give any information or to make any representation not contained in or not consistent with this Base Prospectus or any other document entered into in relation to the Programme or any information supplied by the Issuer in connection with the Programme or the issue of any Notes and, if given or made, such information or representation should not be relied upon as having been authorised by the Issuer, the Trustee or any Dealer.

No representation or warranty is made or implied by the Dealers or the Trustee or any of their respective affiliates, and neither the Dealers, the Trustee nor any of their respective affiliates makes any representation or warranty or accepts any responsibility as to the accuracy or completeness of the information contained in this Base Prospectus. Neither the delivery of this Base Prospectus or any Final Terms nor the offering, sale or delivery of any Note shall, in any circumstances, create any implication that the information contained in this Base Prospectus is true subsequent to the date hereof or the date upon which this Base Prospectus has been most recently amended or supplemented or that there has been no adverse change, or any event reasonably likely to involve any adverse change, in the condition (financial or otherwise) of the Issuer since the date thereof or, if later, the date upon which this Base Prospectus has been most recently amended or supplemented or that any other information supplied in connection with the Programme is correct at any time subsequent to the date on which it is supplied or, if different, the date indicated in the document containing the same.

The distribution of this Base Prospectus and any Final Terms and the offering, sale and delivery of the Notes in certain jurisdictions may be restricted by law. The Issuer, the Dealers and the Trustee do not represent that this Base Prospectus may be lawfully distributed, or that any Notes may be lawfully offered, in compliance with any applicable registration or other requirements in any such jurisdiction, or pursuant to an exemption available thereunder, or assume any responsibility for facilitating any such distribution or offering. With the exception of the approval by the CSSF of this Base Prospectus as a base prospectus issued in compliance with the Prospectus Directive and relevant implementing measures in Luxembourg, no action has been taken by the Issuer, the Dealers or the Trustee which would permit a public offering of any Notes or distribution of this Base Prospectus in any jurisdiction where action for that purpose is required. Accordingly, no Notes may be offered or sold, directly or indirectly, and neither this Base Prospectus nor any advertisement or other offering material may be distributed or published in any jurisdiction, except under circumstances that will result in compliance with any applicable laws and regulations. Persons into whose possession this Base Prospectus or any Final Terms comes are required by the Issuer and the Dealers to inform themselves about and to observe any such restrictions. For a description of certain restrictions on offers, sales and deliveries of Notes and on the distribution of this Base Prospectus or any Final Terms and other offering material relating to the Notes, see "Subscription and Sale" below. In particular, Notes have not been and will not be registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933 (as amended) (the "Securities Act") and are subject to U.S. tax law requirements. Notes are being offered outside the United States in reliance on Regulation S under the Securities Act ("Regulation S"). Subject to certain exceptions, Notes may not be offered, sold or delivered within the United States or to U.S. persons.

Neither this Base Prospectus, any Final Terms nor any other information supplied in connection with the Programme or any Notes is intended to provide the basis of any credit or other evaluation or to constitute an offer or an invitation to subscribe for or purchase any Notes and should not be considered as a recommendation by the Issuer, the Trustee, the Dealers or any of them that any recipient of this Base Prospectus, any Final Terms or other information supplied in connection with the Programme or any Notes should subscribe for or purchase any Notes. Each recipient of this Base Prospectus, any Final Terms or other information supplied in connection with the Programme or any Notes shall be taken to have made its own investigation and appraisal of the condition (financial or otherwise) of the Issuer.

The maximum aggregate principal amount of Notes outstanding at any one time under the Programme will not exceed €6,000,000,000 (and for this purpose, any Notes denominated in another currency shall be translated into euro at the date of the agreement to issue such Notes or on the preceding day on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets are open for business in London (calculated in accordance with the provisions of the Dealer Agreement)). The maximum aggregate principal amount of Notes which may be outstanding at any one time under the Programme may be increased from time to time, subject to compliance with the relevant provisions of the Dealer Agreement as defined under "Subscription and Sale" below.

Unless otherwise provided with respect to a particular Series of Registered Notes, Registered Notes will be represented by a global registered note certificate (a "Global Note Certificate"), deposited with, and registered in the name of a nominee as nominee for, a common depositary for Euroclear Bank SA/NV ("Euroclear") and Clearstream Banking, société anonyme ("Clearstream, Luxembourg"). Individual note certificates ("Individual Note Certificates") evidencing holdings of Registered Notes will only be available in certain limited circumstances. See "Forms of the Notes" below.

Each Tranche of Bearer Notes will initially be represented by a temporary global note (a "Temporary Global Note") or a permanent global note (a "Permanent Global Note"), in each case, without interest coupons and which, in each case, will be deposited on the issue date thereof with a common depositary on behalf of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg. Beneficial interests in a Temporary Global Note will be exchangeable for either beneficial interests in a Permanent Global Note or Bearer Notes in definitive form ("Definitive Notes") upon certification as to non-U.S. beneficial ownership as required by U.S. Treasury regulations. Each Permanent Global Note may be exchanged for Definitive Notes (save to the extent otherwise indicated in the applicable Final Terms) only in the limited circumstances described in the Permanent Global Note, in each case in accordance with the procedure described in "Forms of the Notes" below. For further details of clearing and settlement of the Notes issued under the Programme, see "Book-Entry Clearance Systems" below.

Notes issued pursuant to the Programme may be rated or unrated. Where an issue of Notes is rated, its rating will not necessarily be the same as the rating applicable to the Programme. A security rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to suspension, reduction or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating agency.

In general, European regulated investors are restricted from using a rating for regulatory purposes if such rating is not issued by a credit rating agency established in the European Community and registered under Regulation (EC) No 1060/2009 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 16 September 2009 on credit rating agencies (the "CRA Regulation") unless the rating is provided by a credit rating agency operating in the European Community before 7 June 2010 which has submitted an application for registration in accordance with the CRA Regulation and such registration is not refused.

In this Base Prospectus, unless otherwise specified, references to "U.S.$", "U.S. dollars" or "dollars" are to United States dollars and references to "EUR" or "euro" or "€" are to the single currency introduced at the start of the third stage of European Economic and Monetary Union pursuant to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, as amended.

Certain figures included in this Base Prospectus have been subject to rounding adjustments; accordingly, figures shown for the same category presented in different tables may vary slightly and figures shown as totals in certain tables may not be an arithmetic aggregation of the figures which precede them.

This Base Prospectus has been prepared on the basis that any offer of Notes in any Member State of the European Economic Area which has implemented the Prospectus Directive (each, a "Relevant Member State") will be made pursuant to an exemption under the Prospectus Directive, as implemented in that Relevant Member State, from the requirement to publish a prospectus for offers of Notes. Accordingly any person making or intending to make an offer in that Relevant Member State of Notes which are the subject of an offering contemplated in this Base Prospectus as completed by Final Terms or Drawdown Prospectus in relation to the offer of those Notes may only do so in circumstances in which no obligation arises for the Issuer or any Dealer to publish a prospectus pursuant to Article 3 of the Prospectus Directive or supplement a prospectus pursuant to Article 16 of the Prospectus Directive, in each case, in relation to such offer. Neither the Issuer nor any Dealer have authorised, nor do they authorise, the making of any offer of Notes in circumstances in which an obligation arises for any Issuer or any Dealer to publish or supplement a prospectus for such offer. The expression "Prospectus Directive" means Directive 2003/71/EC (and amendments thereto, including the 2010 PD Amending Directive, to the extent implemented in the Relevant Member State), and includes any relevant implementing measure in the Relevant Member State and the expression "2010 PD Amending Directive" means Directive 2010/73/EU.

In connection with the issue of any Tranche of Notes, the Dealer or Dealers (if any) named as the Stabilising Manager(s) (or persons acting on behalf of any Stabilising Manager(s)) in the applicable Final Terms may over allot Notes or effect transactions with a view to supporting the market price of the Notes at a level higher than that which might otherwise prevail.

However, there is no assurance that the Stabilising Manager(s) (or persons acting on behalf of a Stabilising Manager) will undertake stabilisation action. Any stabilisation action may begin on or after the date on which adequate public disclosure of the terms of the offer of the relevant Tranche of Notes is made and, if begun, may be ended at any time, but it must end no later than the earlier of 30 days after the issue date of the relevant Tranche of Notes and 60 days after the date of the allotment of the relevant Tranche of Notes. Any stabilisation action or over allotment must be conducted by the relevant Stabilising Manager(s) (or person(s) acting on behalf of any Stabilising Manager(s)), in accordance with all applicable laws and rules.

In respect of information in this Base Prospectus sourced from a third party, the Issuer confirms that the information has been accurately reproduced and that as far as the Issuer is aware and is able to ascertain from information published by that third party, no facts have been omitted which would render the reproduced information inaccurate or misleading.

RISK FACTORS

Fortum Oyj (the "Issuer") believes that the following factors may affect its ability to fulfil its obligations under the Notes issued under the Programme. Most of these factors are contingencies which may or may not occur and the Issuer is not in a position to express a view on the likelihood of any such contingency occurring.

In addition, factors which are material for the purpose of assessing the market risks associated with the Notes issued under the Programme are also described below.

The Issuer believes that the factors described below represent the principal risks inherent in investing in Notes issued under the Programme, but the inability of the Issuer to pay interest, principal or other amounts on or in connection with, any Notes may occur for other reasons which may not be considered significant risks by the Issuer based on information currently available to it or which it may currently be unable to anticipate.

Prospective investors are encouraged to read all information in this Base Prospectus carefully as well as to closely review the risk factors listed below in order to reach their own views prior to making any investment decision.

Factors that may affect the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under the Notes issued under the Programme

Commodity market risks

Electricity prices and volumes

The Issuer is exposed to electricity market price movements and volume changes mainly through its power generation and customer sales businesses. In competitive markets the price is determined as the balance between supply and demand. In the Nordic countries there is considerable variation in the amount of available electricity depending on weather conditions and the amount of precipitation. For the Issuer, the impact of lower prices during wet years is partly compensated by its correspondingly higher production of hydro-electric power. Uncertainty in nuclear production due to prolonged maintenance periods or delays in upgrades aimed at lifetime extension or capacity increases, especially in co-owned plants in Sweden, has also increased in recent years, leading to further variation in the amount of available electricity. Other short-term factors affecting electricity prices and volumes in the Nordic market include temperature, CO₂ allowance prices, fuel prices, and the import/export situation

In the Nordic countries, the Issuer manages electricity price and volume risks in its generation business separately from its customer sales business. Price and volume risks in electricity generation are hedged by entering into electricity derivatives contracts, primarily on the Nordic power exchange, Nord Pool. The objective of hedging is to reduce the effect of electricity price volatility on the Issuer's earnings and cash flows, and to secure a minimum level of earnings which ensures financial obligations can be met. The Issuer has hedging strategies for major assets covering several years in the short to medium term which are executed by the trading unit within set mandates. These hedging strategies are continuously evaluated as electricity and other commodity market prices, the hydrological balance and other relevant parameters change. Although the hedging strategies aim at reducing risk, there can be no assurances that the Issuer will not be negatively impacted by electricity price and volume risks which may affect its ability to fulfil its obligations under the Notes issued under the Programme.

The Issuer manages both the electricity price and volume risks in its customer sales business through active portfolio management. There are several types of sales contracts, the volumes and prices of which may vary depending on factors such as temperature, industry demand and the price of electricity on the spot and forward markets. The Issuer manages the portfolio of sales contracts by entering into electricity derivatives contracts to hedge the price risk and by continuous forecasting of demand to manage the volume risk. However, due to the complex nature of customer sales contracts, it is not possible to completely hedge the risks and the Issuer may not be able to pass on all costs incurred to the customer. This may negatively impact the Issuer's earnings and may affect its ability to fulfil its obligations under the Notes issued under the Programme.

In Russia, electricity prices and capacity sales are, to a certain extent regulated, and the electricity price is highly correlated with the gas price. There is currently only a limited financial market for hedging electricity prices in Russia, and the majority of electricity sales are regulated. The Issuer is investigating the possibility of entering into the financial market, and hedging strategies for Russia will therefore be developed in line with the deregulation of the electricity market.

Changes in the regulatory environment and general economic conditions are long-term factors which influence demand and available generation capacity, which in turn affects the long-term electricity price. A downward pressure on prices can be caused by excessive investment in generation relative to demand development. Demand development may deteriorate in relation to forecasts due to, for example, decreased industrial activity, and in the long-term there are no assurances that current price levels can be sustained. Lower prices may negatively impact the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under the Notes issued under the Programme.

CO₂ allowance prices and volumes

The European Union has established an emissions trading scheme to reduce the amount of CO₂ emissions. The scheme started in 2005, and based on the revised directive, it will continue until at least 2020. The CO₂ emission trading scheme enhances the integration of the Nordic market with the rest of Europe. The main factor influencing the prices of CO₂ allowances is the supply and demand balance. Most of the Issuer's CO₂ emissions from power and heat generation in Europe are subject to requirements under the trading scheme. Allowances have so far been granted based on historical emissions and surpluses or deficits of allowances can be sold or bought on the market. From 2013 onwards, allowances for electricity production will be auctioned.

Currently, the Issuer's Russian activities are not subject to any carbon trading scheme, and there is no carbon market in the country, but this could change in the future.

Over 90 per cent. of the Issuer's current power production that is subject to the trading scheme is based on carbon-free energy sources. Most of the allowance price can be passed through to the electricity price, thus mitigating the exposure to CO₂ allowance price risk. The Issuer manages its exposure to CO₂ allowance prices through the use of CO₂ derivatives contracts and by ensuring that the costs of allowances are taken into account during production planning. There are no assurances that the regulations governing the CO₂ allowances trading scheme will remain in place, and future prices and allocation of allowances are uncertain. Rising emission allowances prices would increase the generation costs for the Issuer's fossil-fuelled plants, and whilst they currently represent only a small proportion of Issuer's production facilities, higher emission allowance prices may affect the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under the Notes issued under the Programme.

In addition to the emissions trading scheme, there are other domestic or regional regulatory frameworks in place in countries in which the Issuer operates, including Estonia, Finland, Norway, Poland and Sweden, which give incentives to foster environmentally-friendly production methods. These frameworks include trading schemes in environmental values, feed-in tariffs and subsidies for electricity production. There can be no assurances that these regulatory frameworks will remain or that changes to existing frameworks will not negatively impact the Issuer's financial or operating results.

Fuel prices and volumes

Heat and power generation requires the use of fuels that are purchased on global or local commodity markets. The main fuels used by the Issuer are uranium, coal, natural gas, peat, oil, and various bio-fuels such as wood pellets. A substantial portion of the Issuer's operations is dependent on continued access to these and other raw materials and supplies at appropriate prices.

For fuels that are traded on global markets such as coal and oil, the uncertainty in price is the main factor. Price are largely affected by demand and supply imbalances which can be caused by, for example, increased demand growth in developing countries, natural disasters or supply constraints in countries experiencing political or social unrest. The increasing use of commodities as financial investments has also increased the volatility in prices during recent years. For fuels traded on local markets such as bio-fuels, the volume risk in terms of access to the raw material of appropriate quality is more significant as there may be a limited number of suppliers.

In addition to affecting prices for CO₂ allowances and electricity, fuel prices also have a direct effect on the Issuer's variable heat and power production costs. Exposure to fuel prices is to some extent limited by the Issuer's flexible generation capabilities, which allow for switching between different fuels according to prevailing market conditions. Fuel price risk can to a certain extent be transferred to the consumer through contract pricing, and can be further mitigated through fixed price purchases that cover the forecasted consumption levels. Fixed price purchases can be either for physical deliveries or in the form of financial hedges.

Coal is mainly obtained from Russian suppliers. Wood and peat are mainly obtained from Finland and, to a lesser extent, Sweden. With respect to the Loviisa nuclear power plant, nuclear fuel assemblies (including the uranium contained therein) are acquired from a Russian supplier for the remaining life time of the power plant (up to 2027/2030). Fuel for the Olkiluoto, Forsmark and Oskarshamn nuclear power plants is also purchased on international markets. The main fuel source for heat and power generation in Russia is gas. Gas prices are partially regulated, and there is a dependency on a limited number of suppliers. Changes in the regulation regarding gas prices and suppliers can affect the supply and price of gas.

Management does not currently foresee any difficulties in obtaining fuels for the Issuer's heat and power generation activities. However, it is possible that the Issuer's ability to obtain fuels that are necessary for its operations in one or more business sectors at appropriate prices may be restricted or eliminated altogether as a result of changes in world markets, government restrictions, natural disturbances, regional hostilities or other factors. This may negatively impact the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under the Notes issued under the Programme.

Proprietary Trading Risks

As part of the management of risks relating to fluctuations in prices of electricity, CO₂ allowances and fuels related to the Issuer's business, the Issuer engages in a certain amount of trading in, and relating to, these commodities. The Issuer trades electricity forwards, futures and options, mainly on the Nord Pool and EEX market, CO₂ allowances on the European market and financial coal and oil derivatives on the ICE and over the counter ("OTC") market. The Issuer may expand its operations in the future to other commodities or geographic areas.

Strict management controls and reporting procedures are in place to limit potential losses and ensure compliance with predefined risk mandates. While these steps are designed to limit the Issuer's exposure to risks relating to trading operations, there can be no assurance that the Issuer will not sustain losses in the future as a result of adverse movements in commodity prices or other factors affecting its trading positions.

Financial Risks

The businesses, earnings and financial conditions of the Issuer have been and will continue to be affected by the global financial markets and the global economic outlook. The actual or perceived failure or worsening credit of other financial institutions and counterparties could also adversely affect the Issuer.

Liquidity and refinancing risks

Financing and liquidity management within the Issuer is managed centrally by Corporate Treasury. External financing is primarily raised at parent company level by the Issuer. Operating companies are financed via internal loans from the Issuer (as parent company) and excess cash positions are centralised to the Issuer either through the internal cash-pools or by internal deposits.

The recent global financial crisis has emphasised the need for prudent management of liquidity and refinancing risk. The Issuer manages these risks through a combination of cash positions and committed credit facility agreements with its core banks. The Issuer's continued operation depends on its ability to meet payment obligations under such loans.

During the second half of 2007 and during 2008, the wholesale funding markets (including the international debt capital markets) experienced significant disruptions in part due to lack of liquidity. Although the global economy has started to recover, the financial problems in Greece and other European countries may create a financial market where it could become difficult to raise funding and manage liquidity again, which might affect the ability of the Issuer to refinance its loans or significantly increase the costs of refinancing if credit spreads increased relative to existing loan agreements. The Issuer maintains a diversified financing structure in terms of debt maturity profile, debt instruments and geographical markets. Credit rating agencies assess the Issuer's business and publish credit ratings. A lowering of credit ratings could raise the financing costs of possible new loans taken, which could have a material adverse effect on the Issuer's business, financial condition or results of operations. This may negatively affect the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under the Notes issued under the Programme. Further, there are no assurances that possible adverse changes in business cycles or other factors would not result in renegotiation of the financing or the need for further financing, which in turn may negatively impact the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under the Notes issued under the Programme.

Currency exchange rates

The Issuer has cash flows, assets and liabilities in currencies other than euro. Changes in exchange rates could therefore have an effect on the Issuer's earnings and balance sheet. The Issuer's policy is to hedge major transaction exposures (foreign exchange exposures relating to contracted cash flows, and balance sheet items where changes in exchange rates will have an impact on earnings and cash flow) to avoid the effect of exchange differences in the profit and loss statement. These exposures are mainly hedged by forward contracts. Translation exposures arise when income statements and balance sheet statements of entities in the Issuer's group whose base currency is not euro, are consolidated. These exposures are generally not hedged as the majority of these assets are considered to be long-term strategic holdings of the Issuer's Group.

The main currency exposure is toward EUR/Swedish Krona ("SEK") and EUR/Russian Rouble ("RUB"), arising from the Issuer's extensive operations in Sweden and Russia. The Issuer's target for currency risk management is to reduce fluctuations in earnings and cash flows due to changes in currency rates, but there can be no assurance that the Issuer will be able to manage the risk successfully. The values of the RUB and the SEK declined significantly against the euro towards the end of 2008 and in the beginning of 2009. Since then both currencies have strengthened and stabilised. A further decline of the RUB and the SEK against the euro could have an adverse effect on future results and on the value of net investments of the Issuer when consolidating results and net investments in Swedish and Russian affiliates into the reporting currency (euro) of the Issuer. In respect of the RUB see also "Risks related to Russia and other emerging markets – currency exchange rate risks" below.

The Issuer also conducts currency trading operations involving forward exchange agreements, options, currency swaps and other derivative products to manage exchange rate risk arising from international transactions and operations.

This may negatively impact the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under the Notes issued under the Programme.

Interest Rate Risk

The Issuer's debt portfolio consists of interest bearing assets and liabilities on fixed and floating rate bases with differing maturity profiles. The average interest rate duration for the interest bearing net debt is kept within a range of 12 and 36 months. The Issuer manages the duration of the debt portfolio by entering into different types of financing contracts and interest-rate derivative contracts such as interest rate swaps and forward rate agreements ("FRAs"). Although the Issuer manages interest rate risks with the intention to reduce interest rate costs and to reduce volatility in financial costs, there can be no assurance that the Issuer will be able to manage interest rate risks successfully. This may negatively impact the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under the Notes issued under the Programme.

Counterparty risks

The Issuer's business operations lead to contractual arrangements with customers, suppliers, financing partners, and trading counterparts which expose the Issuer to counterparty risks.

Credit risk exposures relating to financial derivative instruments are often volatile. Although the majority of the Issuer's commodity derivatives are cleared through Nord Pool, derivatives contracts are also entered into directly with other external counterparts. Such OTC contracts are limited to high-credit-quality counterparts active on the financial or commodity markets.

Credit risk exposures relating to customers and suppliers are spread across a wide range of financial institutions, industrial counterparts, small businesses and private individuals over a range of geographic regions. The majority of exposure is to the Nordic market, but there is also significant exposure to Russia as a result of increased operations. The risk of non-payment in the electricity and heat sales business in Russia is higher than in the Nordic market. Due to the committed investment programme in Russia, there is also a significant exposure to the Russian financial sector in terms of deposits with financial institutions as well as to banks who provide guarantees for suppliers and contracting parties.

The Issuer maintains procedures for performing credit checks before entering into any contractual agreement and for managing credit exposures in existing contracts. Exposures are monitored in relation to limits and counterparties creditworthiness in order to ensure that the risks are at an acceptable level. Collateral is actively demanded from counterparties not fulfilling credit requirements. Other mitigating activities include managing payment terms and contract length as well as pursuing netting agreements. However, there are no assurances that the Issuer will not sustain losses as a result of default, litigation or other actions by one or more of its counterparties. Should this occur, it may negatively impact the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under the Notes issued under the Programme.

IT and information security risk

The Issuer manages IT and information security risks centrally through its corporate security and IT functions. The main objective is to ensure high availability and fast recovery of IT systems. The Issuer has established policies which define guidelines and set procedures for reducing risks and managing IT and other information security incidents. Although the Issuer has established these guidelines to reduce risks and increase security, there can be no assurance that losses or costs caused by IT security breaches will be prevented in the future.

Environmental, health and safety risks

Operating power and heat generation and electricity distribution facilities involve the use, storage and transportation of fuels and materials. The nature of the Issuer's businesses, in particular, power and heat production, exposes the Issuer to risks of environmental costs and liabilities. Liability may also arise through the acquisition or ownership of properties or businesses.

The Issuer has established systems intended to reduce or prevent environmental damage as a result of its activities. The Issuer has environmental, health and safety management systems in place and most of these have been certified according to international standards. (98 per cent. of the Issuer's health and safety systems have been already certified in Europe and the Issuer aims to have all of its systems in Russia certified by the end of 2012.)

Environmental risks are regularly evaluated through internal and external audits and risk assessments, and corrective and preventive actions are launched when necessary. Environmental risks and liabilities in relation to past actions have been assessed and necessary provisions made for future remedial costs. However, there can be no assurance that environmental contamination due to prior, present or future practices will not result in future liabilities.

The Issuer's operations are subject to extensive environmental laws and regulations adopted by the European Union and the governmental authorities in the jurisdictions in which the Issuer operates. In Russia in particular, federal, regional and local authorities may enforce existing laws and regulations more strictly than they have done in the past and may impose stricter environmental standards, or higher levels of sanctions for violations, than those now in effect. Notwithstanding the Issuer's established systems mentioned above, any such tightening of the environmental regulations or the stricter application of the existing regulations in the countries of its activities may adversely affect the activities, profit and financial situation of the Issuer and its operations.

Nuclear power

Insurance, Third-Party liability, Nuclear Incidents and Safety

The Issuer owns the Loviisa nuclear power plant, and has minority interests in one Finnish and two Swedish companies with nuclear plants. In Finland and Sweden, third-party liability relating to nuclear accidents is strictly the plant operator's responsibility and must be covered by insurance. As the operator of Loviisa power plant, the Issuer has a statutory insurance policy of approximately EUR 230 million per nuclear incident, which is the upper liability limit for the Issuer under the provisions of the Finnish Nuclear Liability Act (the "Finnish NLA"). Similar insurance policies are in place for the operators in which the Issuer has a minority interest. The arrangement is based on the national nuclear liability acts which, both in Finland and Sweden, are based on the international Paris and Brussels conventions.

The parties to the Paris and Brussels conventions agreed to modify the conventions in February 2004. The aim is to ratify the amendments to the conventions and implement the modified national liability acts at the same time in party countries including Finland and Sweden. The renewed conventions will come into force when 2/3 of the undersigned countries have ratified the amendments. In most of the countries this procedure is not completed and therefore it is difficult to forecast when the amendments will come into force.

In Finland the modified Finnish NLA was approved by Parliament in 2005 and is waiting for ratification. The agreed modifications consist of a liability on plant operators covering damages of up to EUR 700 million per nuclear incident, which should be covered by insurance or other form of financial guarantee. The Finnish government will have to compensate for any damages exceeding EUR 700 million and up to EUR 1,200 million, and therefore have a maximum liability of EUR 500 million. In addition to that, the compensation community, composed of the party countries, will be liable for maximum damages of EUR 300 million so that the total maximum amount of compensation per nuclear incident would be EUR 1,500 million. Parliament has approved a temporary renewal of the current Finnish NLA in March 2011 introducing at EUR 700 million compensation limit and unlimited liability for plant operators. This temporary provision will come into force as of 1 January 2012 and will stay in place until the renewed Paris and Brussels conventions are ratified.

In Sweden Parliament approved new nuclear liability legislation in June 2010. The new law requires a separate decision by the Swedish government to come into force. The compensation limits are similar to those in Finland with an exception that compensation for damages exceeding EUR 700 million and up to EUR 1,200 million will be covered by the operator as some form of financial guarantee or insurance.

According to the Finnish NLA paragraph 18, as amended by amending regulation 23.6.2005/493, the operator of a nuclear power plant in Finland will be strictly liable for damages due to a nuclear incident in Finland. There are no limitations on the liability for damages that occur in Finland. Thus the operator, in the event of a nuclear incident with exceptionally serious results, will be liable for the damage beyond its insurance cover, i.e. when the damage exceeds EUR 1,500 million. If damages occur outside Finland originating from the same nuclear incident, the national legislation of the subjected country will be followed.

In Sweden the proposal is that the operator has a strict and unlimited responsibility. Liability towards other countries will be according to their liability towards Sweden (reciprocity rule).

All of the reactors the Group fully or partly owns fulfil the current safety standards set up by authorities. The Group's reactors have been upgraded from the original design by introducing Severe Accident Management (SAM) systems. The purpose of the upgrades is to manage severe accidents without major releases of radioactivity into the environment.

In Finland the nuclear safety authority, STUK, has started an additional evaluation of safety in cases of power loss, exceptional weather and environmental conditions. The results of this evaluation will be ready by middle of May 2011. The Group expects the Swedish nuclear safety authority, SSM, to undertake similar safety evaluations in Sweden in the near future. The EU has undertaken for safety evaluations to be carried out by end of 2011. The Group believes that additional safety criteria will be introduced for new and old nuclear power plants.

Increases in nuclear power capacity

In January 2002, the Finnish government approved a decision in principle with respect to the construction of a fifth nuclear power plant unit in Finland, and the Finnish Parliament ratified the decision in May 2002. Teollisuuden Voima Oy ("TVO"), the company responsible for the project, was authorised to continue preparations for the construction of a new plant unit. After the decision in principle and before commencing construction, TVO applied for a separate construction licence and obtained it in February 2005. The Issuer is participating in the nuclear power plant with a share of approximately 25 per cent. The completion of the project has been delayed. In November 2010, the plant supplier, AREVA-Siemens, reported that most of the work will be completed in 2012. The supplier also indicated that commissioning will take eight months, which means regular operation will start during the latter half of 2013. According to the turnkey delivery contract the supplier is responsible for the time schedule. AREVA-Siemens has filed a request for arbitration in December 2008 concerning the Olkiluoto 3 delay and related costs. At the end of 2010 the supplier's monetary claim was valued approximately EUR 1.2 billion. In response, TVO has filed a counter-claim in April 2009 for costs and losses that TVO is incurring due to delay and other defaults on the part of the supplier. The value of TVO's counterclaim was approximately EUR 1.4 billion at the end of 2010. The arbitration process can continue for several years.

In 2007, the Issuer launched a project aiming to increase power generation. The target was to make preparations for a new nuclear unit in Loviisa, Lo3, in Finland. In February 2009, Fortum submitted an application to the Finnish Government for a decision-in-principle concerning the construction of a new nuclear power plant unit, Loviisa 3, on the island of Håstholmen in Loviisa. The Finnish Government decided on 21 April 2010 that it will give a negative decision-in-principle on Fortum's application.

TVO also completed its EIA-procedure for one new unit in Olkiluoto, OL4, and submitted the necessary documents for the Governmental resolution in April 2008. The Finnish Government decided on 21 April 2010 that it will give a favourable decision-in-principle on TVO's application which was ratified by the Finnish Parliament on 1 July 2010.

In 2007, the Issuer completed a procedure for renewing operating licences for the Loviisa power plant. The former operating licence was approved at the end 2007 and the new one allows the operator to use Lo1 until the end of 2027 and Lo2 until the end of 2030. The new licence extended the operating life of both Loviisa units up to 50 years. Both in Finland and in Sweden, the total capacity increase in nuclear power plants, which are partly owned by the Issuer, is estimated to be approximately 15 per cent. Most of them will be completed at the end of 2013.

Disposal of nuclear waste

Under Finnish law, the Issuer bears full legal and financial responsibility for the management and disposal of nuclear waste produced by the Loviisa power plant. The Issuer bears partial responsibility, proportionate to its output share, for the costs of the management and disposal of nuclear waste produced by TVO's Olkiluoto nuclear power plant of which it is a part-owner, pursuant to the shareholders' agreement relating thereto in the same manner as for the other fixed operation costs of TVO. The Issuer and TVO have established a company to dispose of spent nuclear fuel. The construction of the facility is scheduled to begin after 2012 and the operation of the facility is expected to commence in 2020. Both the Loviisa and Olkiluoto facilities already operate permanent on-site repositories for low-level and intermediate-level radioactive waste. Waste is placed in containers and disposed of within a cavern complex excavated in bedrock between 50 metres and 100 metres underground. Such repositories will also house irradiated equipment and construction material when the respective nuclear facilities are decommissioned.

In Sweden, under the shareholders' agreements relating to the Forsmark and Oskarshamn nuclear power plants, the Issuer bears partial responsibility, proportionate to its share of output, for the costs of management and disposal of radioactive waste and certain related funding costs from these facilities in the same manner as the other fixed operation costs of the Forsmark and Oskarshamn nuclear power plants.

In both Finland and Sweden, the future costs of the final disposal of spent fuel, the management of low and intermediate-level radioactive waste and nuclear power plant decommissioning are provided for by a state-established fund to which nuclear power plant operators make annual contributions. Even though contributions to these funds should be sufficient to fully cover estimated costs for handling all the produced radioactive waste, including a safety margin, the possibility exists that actual costs could exceed fund provisions. If this were to occur, the Issuer, for its part, would be responsible for any such excess costs.

Multi-layered containment systems and sophisticated safety protocols effectively isolate radioactive materials from the surrounding environment during the process of interim storage, packaging, transport, relocation and encasement of nuclear waste in the final storage repositories. However, although remote, the risk of radioactive leakage into the environment at various stages of this process, as well as from the final storage facilities themselves, cannot be excluded entirely and could negatively impact the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under the Notes issued under the Programme.

Regulation of nuclear power plants

Governmental authorities hold considerable regulatory authority with respect to the continued operation of nuclear power plants, including monitoring compliance with licence conditions, amending the conditions of existing licences and exercising the power to refuse applications for construction of new nuclear power plants or expansion of existing facilities. Exercise of this authority, as with all other regulatory authority, may be influenced significantly by changes in the balance of national political power. The construction of new nuclear power plants has been prohibited in Sweden since the 1980s. In 1999, the government of Sweden closed one nuclear plant prior to the end of its technical life, and in 2005, another plant on the same site was closed. The Issuer does not have an interest in either of these plants. The Swedish Act on Nuclear Phase-Out was cancelled by a legislation change which was decided by Parliament in June 2010 and has been valid since January 2011. This new legislation gives a possibility to keep the number of running nuclear units constant (10 units). However, the possibility of closure prior to the end of the expected technical life of one or more of these power plants or other restrictive action relating thereto, as a result of changes in the regulatory regime, licence conditions or other factors, cannot be excluded entirely. This may negatively impact the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under the Notes issued under the Programme.

Hydro power*Regulation of water flow*

Under the water legislation in Finland and Sweden, environmental permits regarding the regulation of water flow can, under certain circumstances, be amended to reduce the negative effects of the water flow regulation. Compensation is in principle paid to the producers of hydro power, but the compensation can, under certain circumstances, be adjusted. In Sweden, loss of production will not be compensated up to a 5 per cent. loss whereas a greater production loss will most likely result in compensation. Based on the above, there are no assurances that the changes of the permits for the regulation of water flow will not significantly affect the production of hydro power, or that these changes will not be made without full compensation to the Issuer.

Insurance, Third-Party Liability and Dam Failures

Operational events at hydro facilities can lead to physical damages, business interruptions, and third-party liabilities. In Sweden, third-party liabilities from dam failures are strictly the plant owner's responsibility. Together with other hydro power producers, the Issuer has a shared dam liability insurance programme in place that covers Swedish dam failure liabilities up to SEK 9,000 million.

Operational risks in production facilities are mitigated by continuous maintenance, condition monitoring, and other operational improvements. For hydro generation assets, there exists a long-term programme for improving the surveillance of the condition of dams and for securing the discharge capacity in extreme flood situations. Despite the measures taken, there are no assurances that a dam failure will not occur, in which case significant costs to the Issuer could arise.

Electricity Distribution

Operational events electricity distribution facilities can lead to physical damages, business interruptions, and third-party liabilities. Storms and other unexpected events may result in electricity outages that create costs in the form of repairs and for customer compensation. Outages are typically short, but it is not possible to totally prevent long outages. There is an extensive procedure in place to minimise the length and consequences of outages in exceptional circumstances, but there are no assurances that significant costs would not be incurred in the event of a long outage.

Competition and regulation risks*Market integration and price regulation in generation*

The European Commission has expressed the aim of developing a unified EU-wide electricity market and therefore is seeking to remove restrictions on the cross-border transfer of electricity and to foster investments by electricity grid companies in the building of new interconnection lines. Construction of new transmission interconnections among the countries of Northern Europe will increase the competition in generation. In the integrated European market, electricity will flow from lower price areas to higher price areas. Electricity prices in the Nordic area are affected by the prices in Continental Europe and especially prices in Germany. If the price level in Continental Europe is lower than the price level in the Nordic countries, electricity will flow from Continental Europe to the Nordic area thereby depressing prices in the Nordic countries. Further integration increases the connection between Continental European and Nordic area prices. It is also possible that, in the future, the electricity markets of the Nordic countries could be affected by imports from Russia if significantly more generation capacity in North-western Russia and transmission capacity from Russia to the Nordic area is built.

The profitability of the generation business of the Issuer may also be considerably impacted by increasing taxation of generation, including the possibility of windfall profit taxation due to the European Emissions Trading system and the possible taxation of uranium which is under discussion in Finland. These or other future taxation changes may negatively affect the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under the Notes issued under the Programme.

Price regulation in distribution

In Finland, Norway, Estonia and Sweden, electricity distribution is basically regulated through a defined maximum allowed income over a regulation period, usually 4-5 years. Regulatory decisions are made prior to the start of the regulation period and consist of either a model to calculate the allowed income or a model in combination with a decision in respect of the allowed income. The major variables in these models are the level of return on capital employed, expectations on efficiency increases and the quality of services performed. Electricity distribution prices are then set by distribution companies within these regulatory frameworks.

Authorities in these countries continue to gradually develop the steering mechanisms and parameters used in electricity distribution regulation. The political risks associated with a negative public opinion caused by regulation changes on the electricity market as a whole, and the distribution companies in particular, can be significant. It is possible that those authorities will change existing regulatory frameworks, and that such changes will have a material adverse effect on the Issuer's financial condition or results of operations by restricting the Issuer's ability to realise a reasonable return on its distribution activities. This may negatively impact the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under the Notes issued under the Programme.

Price and other regulation in district heating and combined heat and power ("CHP") generation

District heating's main market characteristics are: local urban heat systems based on a variety of fossil and renewable fuels, having typically a quite strong market position in terms of market share but on the other hand increasing competition pressure from alternative space heating sources e.g. individual gas boilers, heat pumps and solar heating. European competition legislation provides that companies having a strong market position need to ensure that their prices remain justified and reasonable in terms of riskiness and profitability of the industry.

Regulatory principles for setting heat price in different jurisdictions are determined on national political and market circumstances and regulation history in the specific jurisdiction. This means that district heating regulation frameworks vary from alternative based heat pricing to cost-plus regulation (ex-ante). Furthermore, there are no specific EU level guidelines for price regulation for district heating.

Prices of district heating in Sweden and Finland is not heavily regulated as heating companies decide and justify their own heat prices and electricity revenues from CHP do not cross-subsidise heat prices. In Norway, on the other hand, heat prices are based on most competitive alternatives. In Eastern Europe, traditionally district heating has been regulated through ex-ante, cost-plus methodology e.g. in Russia, Poland and Baltic States. In all of these jurisdictions, the main objective of regulators and competition authorities is to protect customers from misusing strong market positions and from unjustified heat price levels. Electricity revenues from CHP are liberalised and heat pricing principles are regulated in accordance with the different national frameworks. However level of cross-subsidy between electricity and heat revenues still exists in some countries in Eastern Europe.

Recently, the ambition has become higher on a EU level to increase market orientation, competition and energy efficiency in heat markets as space heating represents approximately 40 per cent. of European green-house gas emissions and therefore is an important industry sector within EU's energy policy context targeting to mitigate climate change. The opportunities to increase competition in district heating occur at two levels: competition between district heating and its main alternatives in local heating markets and also potentially voluntary or mandatory competition between different district heat production sources (third-party-access in heat networks). The introduction of framework in order to regulate access to the district heating markets entails both an increased risk of existing plants being left unused, and an opportunity for easier access to the market for new plants and investors. Available regulatory framework varies substantially and at the moment only few precedents of regulation in district heating market exist. The general trend is that by increasing competition through the introduction of rules to access the market would involve increasing structural costs e.g. separation of heat production and distribution.

Authorities continue to actively develop the mechanisms and parameters used in regulation of district heating and CHP industries that are gaining importance in EU's energy policy context. The following main objectives are foreseen to strengthen: protection of vulnerable customers, disconnection of social and energy policy, encouragement of more competition, higher energy efficiency and sustainability promoting benefits of district heating, CHP and renewable energy sources. The evolution of frameworks regulating the district heating markets and pushing it towards a more unified market and the introducing of price setting principles is foreseen to gradually take place and have an impact on the Issuer's financial condition or results of operations as the Issuer's ability to realise predictable and stable returns on its heating and CHP activities will be affected. This may impact the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under the Notes issued under the Program.

Compliance risks

The Issuer's operations are subject to rules and regulations set forth by the relevant authorities, exchanges, and other regulatory bodies in all markets which it operates.

The Issuer maintains strict internal market conduct rules and has procedures in place to prevent, for example, the use of proprietary information before it is published. Segregation of duties and internal controls are enforced to minimise the possibilities of unauthorised activities. The Issuer has also a MiFID Licence relating to its Customer Portfolio Services business. However, this business will be discontinued, and the need for a MiFID license will be reviewed in the future.

Compliance with the competition legislation is managed through dedicated Competition Compliance Programme and process to systematically identify and mitigate compliance risks. Despite these measures, there can be no assurances that compliance breach will not occur which would adversely affect the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under the Notes issued under the Programme.

Investment risk

In the Nordic countries, there are still large numbers of small municipal electricity companies, but the trend has been for these companies to transfer ownership, either fully or partly, to larger energy companies. The success of the Issuer's strategy of focusing on the Nordic countries and on creating the framework for long-term profitable growth depends in part upon identifying suitable acquisition or investment opportunities and successfully consummating those transactions.

Even if the Issuer is able to identify candidates for acquisition or investment, it may be difficult to complete transactions. Competition or similar laws may make it difficult for the Issuer to complete additional acquisitions if regulators in countries where the Issuer and potential acquisition targets operate believe that a proposed transaction will have an adverse effect on competition in the relevant market. Competition for acquisitions could limit the Issuer's ability to grow by this method or could raise the prices of acquisitions and make them less attractive to the Issuer. If the Issuer is unable to make acquisitions for any of these reasons, it could be prevented from implementing its strategy and from realising the benefits it expects to derive there from.

Risks related to Russia and other emerging markets

The Issuer's growth strategy includes expanding operations in emerging markets, including Russia. Investors should note that emerging markets, including Russia, are subject to rapid change and that the information set out in this Prospectus may become outdated relatively quickly.

Political risk

Emerging markets countries are subject to greater political, economic and social uncertainties than countries with more developed institutional structures, and the risk of loss resulting from changes in law, economic and social upheaval and other factors may be substantial. Among the more significant risks of operating and investing in emerging market countries are those arising from the establishment or enforcement of foreign exchange restrictions, which could effectively prevent the Issuer from repatriating profits or liquidating assets and withdrawing from one or more of these countries, and changes in tax regulations or enforcement mechanisms, which could substantially reduce or eliminate any revenues derived from operations in these countries and reduce significantly the value of assets related to such operations.

In Russia, the division of authority between federal and regional authorities remains uncertain and contested and this could hinder the Issuer's long-term planning efforts, create uncertainties in the Russian operating environment and prevent the Issuer from effectively and efficiently carrying out its business strategy. Additionally, state authorities have a high degree of discretion in Russia and at times exercise their discretion arbitrarily, without hearing or prior notice, and sometimes in a manner that is contrary to law. Possible state actions include withdrawal of licences, interference with or nullification of contracts and transactions entered into in connection with privatisations, invalidation of share issuances and registrations, sudden and unexpected tax audits, criminal prosecutions and civil actions. If the Issuer is affected by any of these factors, its operations and financial condition could be negatively affected. This may negatively impact the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under the Notes issued under the Programme.

Inadequacies in the legal systems and law enforcement mechanisms in Russia and certain other of the emerging markets in which the Issuer operates leave it exposed to the possibility of considerable loss as a result of criminal or abusive practices by competitors, parties with which it contracts or others. The Issuer's ability to operate in Russia may also be adversely affected by difficulties in protecting and enforcing its rights in disputes with its contractual partners or other parties, for example concerning regulatory influence on business and unfair market conditions, and also by future changes to local laws and regulations.

In addition, there can be no assurance that the positive trends in the Russian economy will continue or will not be abruptly reversed. Similarly, changes in the Russian government, major policy shifts, a discontinuation of reform policies or a lack of consensus between Russia's government, Parliament and powerful economic groups could lead to political instability. A decline in economic conditions and/or political instability in Russia may negatively affect the operations and value of certain investments by the Issuer in Russia. This may negatively impact the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under the Notes issued under the Programme.

Currency exchange rate risks

A material amount of the Issuer's net investments are denominated in RUB as a result of the Issuer's operations in Russia. The Issuer's financial statements are reported in euros and consequently there is a risk of translation exposure, due to changes in the exchange rate of the RUB against the euro, when income statements and balance sheet statements of Russian entities are consolidated.

In 2008 and 2009 the RUB experienced a significant depreciation against the euro and the U.S.$$. The RUB is managed against a bi-currency basket (55 per cent. U.S.$ and 45 per cent. euro) within a floating band that currently is between basket/RUB 32.40 and 37.40. Since 2009 and as the date of this Prospectus, the RUB has strengthened and stabilised against the euro and the U.S.$$. The ability of the Russian Federation to prevent future depreciations of the RUB against the major currencies depends on many political and economic factors, including its ability to control inflation and the availability of foreign currency reserves.

A future depreciation of the RUB against the euro could have an adverse effect on the Issuer's business, results of operations and, financial conditions and prospects, particularly in respect of the value of net investments of the Issuer when consolidating results and net investments of Russian affiliates into the reporting currency (euro) of the Issuer.

Integration and project risks

In the first quarter 2008, the Issuer acquired a controlling stake in OAO Fortum (formerly Territorial Generating Company 10, TGC-10) which includes a committed investment programme. The value of the remaining part of the programme, calculated at the 2010 year-end exchange rate, is estimated to be EUR 1.5 billion as of 1 January 2011. As with all large projects, there is a risk of delays, for example in establishing new capacity and grid connections. The success of the integration of OAO Fortum is dependent on the completion of these projects according to schedule. The project risks in Russia are closely monitored by a dedicated team. The power demand has recovered after the global financial crisis and a potential early completion of some projects by 1-3 years is currently under review with a favourable outlook. In addition, the Issuer may acquire or be merged with other business and legal entities in the future. The integration of OAO Fortum or any other such business may be difficult for a variety of reasons, including differing culture or management styles. As a result, the need to integrate OAO Fortum or any potential future acquisitions poses risks to the Issuer's existing operations, including:

- additional demands placed on the Issuer's senior management, who are also responsible for managing the Issuer's existing operations;
- increased overall operating complexity of the Issuer's business, requiring greater personnel and other resources;
- additional cash expenditures; and
- the need to attract and retain sufficient numbers of qualified management and other personnel.

Any failure to successfully integrate OAO Fortum or future acquisitions could adversely affect the Issuer's business, financial condition and results of operations. Moreover, even if the Issuer is successful in integrating OAO Fortum or any other such business, expected synergies and cost savings may not materialise, resulting in lower than expected profit margins.

Regulatory risks

As a result of the OAO Fortum acquisition, the Issuer now owns and operates heat and power generation assets in Russia. These businesses are currently subject to regulation, but the power market in particular is undergoing a process of deregulation and, as a result, the prices for electricity in Russia are expected to increase. However, there can be no assurances that the deregulation will proceed as planned, and there can be no guarantees that electricity prices will develop as expected.

The main fuel source for heat and power generation in Russia is gas. Gas prices are partially regulated, and there is a dependency on a limited number of suppliers. Changes in the regulation regarding gas prices and suppliers can affect the supply and price of gas. Furthermore, if deregulation of the gas and electricity markets is not aligned, the impact of price changes in either electricity or gas could be significant. There can be no assurance that prices develop according to plan and that future changes in prices or regulation will not negatively impact the Issuer.

Dependence on key personnel

The Issuer's continued success depends largely on its management team and personnel. The loss of the services of any member of its senior management or other key employees could have a negative impact on the Issuer's results and its ability to implement its strategy. In addition, the Issuer's success depends on its ability to hire, develop, train, motivate and retain skilled professionals on its staff. Although the Issuer has not had any problems in the past with attracting and retaining staff, there can be no assurance of its ability to do so in the future.

Ownership and controlling interest of the Finnish State

The Finnish State currently holds 50.76 per cent. of the shares of, and voting rights in, the Issuer. Accordingly, the Finnish State will continue to have significant voting power in issues subject to the resolution of the shareholders' meeting, such as adoption of the financial statements, decisions on dividend distributions, amendments of the articles of association, increases of shareholders' equity, securities issues and election and dismissal of the members of the board of directors and supervisory board. The significant voting power of the Finnish State may also limit the possibilities to use the shares in the Issuer to finance future mergers and acquisition activity. This may require the Issuer to acquire additional debt financing to cover the costs of future investments.

Factors which are material for the purpose of assessing the market risks associated with Notes issued under the Programme

The Notes may not be a suitable investment for all investors

Each potential investor in the Notes must determine the suitability of that investment in light of its own circumstances. In particular, each potential investor should:

- (i) have sufficient knowledge and experience to make a meaningful evaluation of the Notes, the merits and risks of investing in the Notes and the information contained or incorporated by reference in this Base Prospectus or any applicable supplement;
- (ii) have access to, and knowledge of, appropriate analytical tools to evaluate, in the context of its particular financial situation, an investment in the Notes and the impact the Notes will have on its overall investment portfolio;
- (iii) have sufficient financial resources and liquidity to bear all of the risks of an investment in the Notes, including Notes with principal or interest payable in one or more currencies, or where the currency for principal or interest payments is different from the potential investor's currency;
- (iv) understand thoroughly the terms of the Notes and be familiar with the behaviour of any relevant indices and financial markets; and
- (v) be able to evaluate (either alone or with the help of a financial adviser or other adviser) possible scenarios for economic, interest rate, legal and other factors that may affect its investment and its ability to bear the applicable risks.

Some Notes are complex financial instruments. Sophisticated institutional investors generally do not purchase complex financial instruments as stand-alone investments. They purchase complex financial instruments as a way to reduce risk or enhance yield with an understood, measured, appropriate addition of risk to their overall portfolios. A potential investor should not invest in Notes which are complex financial instruments unless it has the expertise (either alone or with a financial adviser) to evaluate how the Notes will perform under changing conditions, the resulting effects on the value of the Notes and the impact this investment will have on the potential investor's overall investment portfolio.

Risks related to the structure of a particular issue of Notes

A wide range of Notes may be issued under the Programme. A number of these Notes may have features which contain particular risks for potential investors. Set out below is a description of the most common such features:

Notes subject to optional redemption by the Issuer

An optional redemption feature of Notes is likely to limit their market value. During any period when the Issuer may elect to redeem Notes, the market value of those Notes generally will not rise substantially above the price at which they can be redeemed. This also may be true prior to any redemption period.

The Issuer may be expected to redeem Notes when its cost of borrowing is lower than the interest rate on the Notes. At those times, an investor generally would not be able to reinvest the redemption proceeds at an effective interest rate as high as the interest rate on the Notes being redeemed and may only be able to do so at a significantly lower rate. Potential investors should consider reinvestment risk in light of other investments available at that time.

Index Linked Notes and Dual Currency Notes

The Issuer may issue Notes with principal or interest determined by reference to an index or formula, to changes in the prices of securities or commodities, to movements in currency exchange rates or other factors (each, a "Relevant Factor"). In addition, the Issuer may issue Notes with principal or interest payable in one or more currencies which may be different from the currency in which the Notes are denominated. Potential investors should be aware that:

- (a) the market price of such Notes may be volatile;

- (b) they may receive no interest;
- (c) payment of principal or interest may occur at a different time or in a different currency than expected;
- (d) they may lose all or a substantial portion of their principal;
- (e) a Relevant Factor may be subject to significant fluctuations that may not correlate with changes in interest rates, currencies or other indices;
- (f) if a Relevant Factor is applied to Notes in conjunction with a multiplier greater than one or contains some other leverage factor, the effect of changes in the Relevant Factor on principal or interest payable likely will be magnified; and
- (g) the timing of changes in a Relevant Factor may affect the actual yield to investors, even if the average level is consistent with their expectations. In general, the earlier the change in the Relevant Factor, the greater the effect on yield.

The historical experience of an index should not be viewed as an indication of the future performance of such index during the term of any Index Linked Notes. Accordingly, each potential investor should consult its own financial and legal advisers about the risk entailed by an investment in any Index Linked Notes and the suitability of such Notes in light of its particular circumstances.

Partly-paid Notes

The Issuer may issue Notes where the issue price is payable in more than one instalment. Failure to pay any subsequent instalment could result in an investor losing all of his investment.

Variable rate Notes with a multiplier or other leverage factor

Notes with variable interest rates can be volatile investments. If they are structured to include multipliers or other leverage factors, or caps or floors, or any combination of those features or other similar related features, their market values may be even more volatile than those for securities that do not include those features.

Inverse Floating Rate Notes

Inverse Floating Rate Notes have an interest rate equal to a fixed rate minus a rate based upon a reference rate such as LIBOR. The market values of those Notes typically are more volatile than market values of other conventional floating rate debt securities based on the same reference rate (and with otherwise comparable terms). Inverse Floating Rate Notes are more volatile because an increase in the reference rate not only decreases the interest rate of the Notes, but may also reflect an increase in prevailing interest rates, which further adversely affects the market value of these Notes.

Fixed/Floating Rate Notes

Fixed/Floating Rate Notes may bear interest at a rate that converts from a fixed rate to a floating rate, or from a floating rate to a fixed rate. Where the Issuer has the right to effect such a conversion, this will affect the secondary market and the market value of the Notes since the Issuer may be expected to convert the rate when it is likely to produce a lower overall cost of borrowing. If the Issuer converts from a fixed rate to a floating rate in such circumstances, the spread on the Fixed/Floating Rate Notes may be less favourable than then prevailing spreads on comparable Floating Rate Notes tied to the same reference rate. In addition, the new floating rate at any time may be lower than the rates on other Notes. If the Issuer converts from a floating rate to a fixed rate in such circumstances, the fixed rate may be lower than then prevailing rates on its Notes.

Notes issued at a substantial discount or premium

The market values of securities issued at a substantial discount or premium from their principal amount tend to fluctuate more in relation to general changes in interest rates than do prices for conventional interest-bearing securities. Generally, the longer the remaining term of the securities, the greater the price volatility as compared to conventional interest-bearing securities with comparable maturities.

Risks related to Notes generally

Set out below is a brief description of certain risks relating to the Notes generally:

Modification, waivers and substitution

The conditions of the Notes contain provisions for calling meetings of Noteholders to consider matters affecting their interests generally. These provisions permit defined majorities to bind all Noteholders including Noteholders who did not attend and vote at the relevant meeting and Noteholders who voted in a manner contrary to the majority.

The conditions of the Notes also provide that the Trustee may, without the consent of Noteholders, agree to (i) any modification of, or to the waiver or authorisation of any breach or proposed breach of, any of the provisions of Notes or (ii) determine without the consent of the Noteholders that any Event of Default or potential Event of Default shall not be treated as such or (iii) the substitution of another company as principal debtor under any Notes in place of the Issuer, in the circumstances described in Condition 18 of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes.

EU Savings Directive

Under EC Council Directive 2003/48/EC (the "EU Savings Directive") on the taxation of savings income, each Member State is required to provide to the tax authorities of another Member State details of payments of interest or other similar income (within the meaning of the EU Savings Directive) paid by a paying agent in the meaning of the EU Savings Directive within its jurisdiction to, or collected by such a paying agent for, an individual resident or certain limited types of entity established in that other Member State; however, for a transitional period, Austria and Luxembourg may instead apply a withholding system in relation to such payments, deducting tax at rates rising over time to 35 per cent., unless in the case of Luxembourg the beneficial owner of the interest payments opts for one of the two information exchange procedures available. The transitional period is to terminate at the end of the first full fiscal year following agreement by certain non-EU countries to the exchange of information relating to such payments.

A number of non-EU countries and certain dependent or associated territories of certain Member States, have adopted similar measures (either provision of information or transitional withholding) in relation to payments made by a paying agent within its jurisdiction to, or collected by such a paying agent for, an individual resident in a Member State. In addition, the Member States have entered into provision of information or transitional withholding arrangements with certain of those dependent or associated territories in relation to payments made by a person in a Member State to, or collected by such a person for, an individual resident or certain limited types of entity established in one of those territories.

The European Commission has proposed certain amendments to the EU Savings Directive, which may, if implemented, amend or broaden the scope of the requirements described above. Investors who are in any doubt as to their position should consult their professional advisers.

If a payment were to be made or collected through a Member State which has opted for a withholding system and an amount of, or in respect of tax were to be withheld from that payment, neither the Issuer nor any Paying Agent nor any other person would be obliged to pay additional amounts with respect to any Note as a result of the imposition of such withholding tax. The Issuer is required to maintain a Paying Agent in a Member State that is not obliged to withhold or deduct tax pursuant to the EU Savings Directive.

Change of law

The conditions of the Notes are based on English law in effect as at the date of this Base Prospectus. No assurance can be given as to the impact of any possible judicial decision or change to English law or administrative practice after the date of this Base Prospectus.

Notes where denominations involve integral multiples: definitive Notes

In relation to any issue of Notes which have denominations consisting of a minimum Specified Denomination plus one or more higher integral multiples of another smaller amount, it is possible that such Notes may be traded in amounts that are not integral multiples of such minimum Specified

Denomination. In such a case a holder who, as a result of trading such amounts, holds an amount which is less than the minimum Specified Denomination in his account with the relevant clearing system at the relevant time may not receive a definitive Note in respect of such holding (should definitive Notes be printed) and would need to purchase a principal amount of Notes such that its holding amounts to a Specified Denomination.

If definitive Notes are issued, holders should be aware that definitive Notes which have a denomination that is not an integral multiple of the minimum Specified Denomination may be illiquid and difficult to trade.

Risks related to the market generally

Set out below is a brief description of the principal market risks, including liquidity risk, exchange rate risk, interest rate risk and credit risk:

The secondary market generally

Notes may have no established trading market when issued, and one may never develop. If a market does develop, it may not be very liquid. Therefore, investors may not be able to sell their Notes easily or at prices that will provide them with a yield comparable to similar investments that have a developed secondary market. This is particularly the case for Notes that are especially sensitive to interest rate, currency or market risks, are designed for specific investment objectives or strategies or have been structured to meet the investment requirements of limited categories of investors. These types of Notes generally would have a more limited secondary market and more price volatility than conventional debt securities. Illiquidity may have a severely adverse effect on the market value of Notes.

Exchange rate risks and exchange controls

The Issuer will pay principal and interest on the Notes in the Specified Currency. This presents certain risks relating to currency conversions if an investor's financial activities are denominated principally in a currency or currency unit (the "Investor's Currency") other than the Specified Currency. These include the risk that exchange rates may significantly change (including changes due to devaluation of the Specified Currency or revaluation of the Investor's Currency) and the risk that authorities with jurisdiction over the Investor's Currency may impose or modify exchange controls. An appreciation in the value of the Investor's Currency relative to the Specified Currency would decrease (1) the Investor's Currency-equivalent yield on the Notes, (2) the Investor's Currency equivalent value of the principal payable on the Notes and (3) the Investor's Currency equivalent market value of the Notes.

Government and monetary authorities may impose (as some have done in the past) exchange controls that could adversely affect an applicable exchange rate. As a result, investors may receive less interest or principal than expected, or no interest or principal.

Interest rate risks

Investment in Fixed Rate Notes involves the risk that subsequent changes in market interest rates may adversely affect the value of the Fixed Rate Notes.

Credit ratings may not reflect all risks

One or more independent credit rating agencies may assign credit ratings to the Notes. The ratings may not reflect the potential impact of all risks related to structure, market, additional factors discussed above, and other factors that may affect the value of the Notes. A credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be revised or withdrawn by the rating agency at any time.

In general, European regulated investors are restricted under Regulation (EC) No. 1060/2009 (the "CRA Regulation") from using credit ratings for regulatory purposes, unless such ratings are issued by a credit rating agency established in the EU and registered under the CRA Regulation (and such registration has not been withdrawn or suspended), subject to transitional provisions that apply in certain circumstances whilst the registration application is pending. Such general restriction will also apply in the case of credit ratings issued by non-EU credit rating agencies, unless the relevant credit ratings are endorsed by an EU-registered credit rating agency or the relevant non-EU rating agency is certified in accordance with the CRA Regulation (and such endorsement action or certification, as the case may be, has not been withdrawn or suspended). Certain information with respect to the credit rating agencies and ratings will be disclosed in the Final Terms

Legal investment considerations may restrict certain investments

The investment activities of certain investors are subject to legal investment laws and regulations, or review or regulation by certain authorities. Each potential investor should consult its legal advisers to determine whether and to what extent (1) Notes are legal investments for it, (2) Notes can be used as collateral for various types of borrowing and (3) other restrictions apply to its purchase or pledge of any Notes. Financial institutions should consult their legal advisors or the appropriate regulators to determine the appropriate treatment of Notes under any applicable risk-based capital or similar rules.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE BASE PROSPECTUS

If at any time during the duration of the Programme there is a significant new factor, material mistake or inaccuracy relating to information contained in this Base Prospectus which is capable of affecting the assessment of any Notes whose inclusion would reasonably be required by investors for the purpose of making an informed assessment of the assets and liabilities, financial position, profits and losses and prospects of the Issuer and the rights attaching to the Notes, the Issuer shall prepare a supplement to this Base Prospectus or publish a replacement Base Prospectus for use in connection with any subsequent offering of the Notes.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The net proceeds of the issue of each Tranche of Notes will be applied by the Issuer to meet part of its general financing requirements.

GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE PROGRAMME

This Programme is a €6,000,000,000 Euro Medium Term Note Programme under which the Issuer may from time to time issue Notes in accordance with and subject to all applicable laws and regulations and denominated in any currency, subject as set out herein. The applicable terms of any Notes will be agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer or Dealers prior to the issue of the Notes and will be set out in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes endorsed on, attached to, or incorporated by reference into, the Notes, as modified and supplemented by the applicable Final Terms attached to, or endorsed on, such Notes, as more fully described under "Forms of the Notes" below.

FORMS OF THE NOTES

The Notes of each Series will be in bearer or registered form.

Registered Notes

Unless otherwise provided with respect to a particular Series of Registered Notes, each Tranche of Registered Notes will be represented by a global registered note certificate (the "Global Note Certificate") which will be deposited with, and registered in the name of a nominee as nominee for, a common depositary for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg.

The Global Note Certificate will become exchangeable in whole, but not in part, for individual note certificates ("Individual Note Certificates") if (a) Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg or any other relevant clearing system is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of legal holidays) or announces an intention permanently to cease business or has in fact done so and no successor clearing system satisfactory to the Trustee is available, (b) any of the circumstances described in Condition 14 (Events of Default) occurs or (c) at any time at the request of the Issuer.

Whenever the Global Note Certificate is to be exchanged for Individual Note Certificates, such Individual Note Certificates will be issued in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of the Global Note Certificate within five business days of the delivery, by or on behalf of the registered holder of the Global Note Certificate, Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system, to the Registrar of such information as is required to complete and deliver such Individual Note Certificates (including, without limitation, the names and addresses of the persons in whose names the Individual Note Certificates are to be registered and the principal amount of each such person's holding) against the surrender of the Global Note Certificate at the Specified Office of the Registrar. Such exchange will be effected in accordance with the provisions of the Agency Agreement and the regulations concerning the transfer of Registered Notes scheduled thereto and, in particular, shall be effected without charge to any holder or the Trustee, but against such indemnity as the Registrar may require in respect of any tax or other duty of whatsoever nature which may be levied or imposed in connection with such exchange.

Bearer Notes

Each Tranche of Bearer Notes will initially be in the form of either a temporary global note (the "Temporary Global Note"), without interest coupons, or a permanent global note (the "Permanent Global Note"), without interest coupons, in each case as specified in the relevant Final Terms. Each Temporary Global Note or, as the case may be, Permanent Global Note (each a "Global Note") will be deposited on or around the issue date of the relevant Tranche of the Notes with a depositary or a common depositary for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system.

The relevant Final Terms will also specify whether United States Treasury Regulation §1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(C) (the "TEFRA C Rules") or United States Treasury Regulation §1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(D) (the "TEFRA D Rules") are applicable in relation to the Bearer Notes or, if the Bearer Notes do not have a maturity of more than 365 days, that neither the TEFRA C Rules nor the TEFRA D Rules are applicable.

If the relevant Final Terms specify the form of Bearer Notes as being "Temporary Global Note exchangeable for a Permanent Global Note", then the Bearer Notes will initially be in the form of a Temporary Global Note which will be exchangeable, in whole or in part, for interests in a Permanent Global Note, without interest coupons, not earlier than 40 days after the issue date of the relevant Tranche of the Bearer Notes upon certification as to non-U.S. beneficial ownership. No payments will be made under the Temporary Global Note unless exchange for interests in the Permanent Global Note is improperly withheld or refused. In addition, interest payments in respect of the Bearer Notes cannot be collected without such certification of non-U.S. beneficial ownership.

Whenever any interest in the Temporary Global Note is to be exchanged for an interest in a Permanent Global Note, the Issuer shall procure (in the case of first exchange) the delivery (free of charge to the bearer) of such Permanent Global Note to the bearer of the Temporary Global Note or (in the case of any subsequent exchange) an increase in the principal amount of the Permanent Global Note in accordance with its terms against:

- (i) presentation and (in the case of final exchange) surrender of the Temporary Global Note at the Specified Office of the Principal Paying Agent; and
- (ii) receipt by the Principal Paying Agent of a certificate or certificates of non-U.S. beneficial ownership, during normal business hours on or after the date which is 40 days after the Temporary Global Note is issued.

The principal amount of the Permanent Global Note shall be equal to the aggregate of the principal amounts specified in the certificates of non-U.S. beneficial ownership; provided, however, that in no circumstances shall the principal amount of the Permanent Global Note exceed the initial principal amount of the Temporary Global Note.

The Permanent Global Note will be exchangeable in whole, but not in part, for Bearer Notes in definitive form ("Definitive Notes"):

- (i) on the expiry of such period of notice as may be specified in the relevant Final Terms; or
- (ii) at any time, if so specified in the relevant Final Terms; or
- (iii) if the relevant Final Terms specify "in the limited circumstances specified in the Permanent Global Note", then if (a) Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg or any other relevant clearing system is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of legal holidays) or announces an intention permanently to cease business or has in fact done so and no successor clearing system satisfactory to the Trustee is available, (b) any of the circumstances described in Condition 14 (Events of Default) occurs or (c) at any time at the request of the Issuer provided that this paragraph (iii)(c) shall not apply if the Final Terms specify denominations consisting of a minimum Specified Denomination plus one or more higher integral multiples of another smaller amount.

Whenever the Permanent Global Note is to be exchanged for Definitive Notes, the Issuer shall procure the delivery (free of charge to the bearer) of such Definitive Notes, duly authenticated and with Coupons and Talons attached (if so specified in the relevant Final Terms), in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of the Permanent Global Note to the bearer of the Permanent Global Note against the surrender of the Permanent Global Note at the Specified Office of the Principal Paying Agent during normal business hours, in the case of (i) above, on and after the expiry of the relevant notice period, in the case of (ii) above, at any time and, in the case of (iii) above, 30 days after notice is given to the Issuer requesting exchange following the occurrence of an event described in (iii)(a) or (b) and 30 days after notice is given by the Issuer, in the case of (iii)(c), provided that this paragraph (iii)(c) shall not apply if the Final Terms specify denominations consisting of a minimum Specified Denomination plus one or more higher integral multiples of another smaller amount.

If the relevant Final Terms specify the form of Bearer Notes as being "Temporary Global Note exchangeable for Definitive Notes" and also specifies that the TEFRA C Rules are applicable or that neither the TEFRA C Rules or the TEFRA D Rules are applicable, then the Notes will initially be in the form of a Temporary Global Note which will be exchangeable, in whole but not in part, for Definitive Notes not earlier than 40 days after the issue date of the relevant Tranche of the Notes.

If the relevant Final Terms specify the form of Bearer Notes as being "Temporary Global Note exchangeable for Definitive Notes" and also specifies that the TEFRA D Rules are applicable, then the Notes will initially be in the form of a Temporary Global Note which will be exchangeable, in whole or in part, for Definitive Notes not earlier than 40 days after the issue date of the relevant Tranche of the Notes upon certification as to non-U.S. beneficial ownership. Interest payments in respect of the Notes cannot be collected without such certification of non-U.S. beneficial ownership.

Whenever the Temporary Global Note is to be exchanged for Definitive Notes, the Issuer shall procure the delivery (free of charge to the bearer) of such Definitive Notes, duly authenticated and with Coupons and Talons attached (if so specified in the relevant Final Terms), in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of the Temporary Global Note or in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount to be exchanged, as the case may be, in each case to the bearer of the Temporary Global Note against the surrender or presentation for endorsement, as the case may be, of the Temporary Global Note at the Specified Office of the Principal Paying Agent during normal business hours, on or after the expiry of the notice period specified in the relevant Final Terms.

If the relevant Final Terms specify the form of Bearer Notes as being "Permanent Global Note exchangeable for Definitive Notes", then the Notes will initially be in the form of a Permanent Global Note which will be exchangeable in whole, but not in part, for Definitive Notes:

- (i) on the expiry of such period of notice as may be specified in the relevant Final Terms; or
- (ii) at any time, if so specified in the relevant Final Terms; or
- (iii) if the relevant Final Terms specify "in the limited circumstances specified in the Permanent Global Note", then if (a) Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg or any other relevant clearing system is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of legal holidays) or announces an intention permanently to cease business or has in fact done so and no successor clearing system satisfactory to the Trustee is available (b) any of the circumstances described in Condition 14 (Events of Default) occurs or (c) at any time at the request of the Issuer, provided that this paragraph (iii)(c) shall not apply if the Final Terms specify denominations consisting of a minimum Specified Denomination plus one or more higher integral multiples of another smaller amount.

Whenever the Permanent Global Note is to be exchanged for Definitive Notes, the Issuer shall procure the delivery (free of charge to the bearer) of such Definitive Notes, duly authenticated and with Coupons and Talons attached (if so specified in the relevant Final Terms), in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of the Permanent Global Note to the bearer of the Permanent Global Note against the surrender of the Permanent Global Note at the Specified Office of the Principal Paying Agent during normal business hours, in the case of (i) above, on and after the expiry of the relevant notice period, in the case of (ii) above, at any time and, in the case of (iii) above, 30 days after notice is given to the Issuer requesting exchange following the occurrence of an event described in (iii)(a) or (b) and 30 days after notice is given by the Issuer, in the case of (iii)(c), provided that this paragraph (iii)(c) shall not apply if the Final Terms specify denominations consisting of a minimum Specified Denomination plus one or more higher integral multiples of another smaller amount.

In the case of Notes having a maturity of more than 365 days, the following legend will appear on all Global Notes, Definitive Notes, Coupons and Talons:

"Any United States person who holds this obligation will be subject to limitations under the United States income tax laws, including the limitations provided in Sections 165(j) and 1287(a) of the Internal Revenue Code."

The sections referred to in such legend provide that a United States person who holds a Bearer Note, Coupon or Talon will generally not be allowed to deduct any loss realised on the sale, exchange or redemption of such Bearer Note, Coupon or Talon and any gain (which might otherwise be characterised as capital gain) recognised on such sale, exchange or redemption will be treated as ordinary income.

Terms and Conditions applicable to the Notes

The terms and conditions applicable to any Note in definitive form will be endorsed on that Note and will consist of the terms and conditions set out under "Terms and Conditions of the Notes" below and the provisions of the relevant Final Terms which supplement, amend and/or replace those terms and conditions.

The terms and conditions applicable to any Note in global form will differ from those terms and conditions which would apply to the Note were it in definitive form to the extent described under "Summary of Provisions Relating to the Notes while in Global Form" below.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE NOTES

The following is the text of the terms and conditions which, as supplemented, amended and/or replaced by the relevant Final Terms, will be endorsed on each Note in definitive form issued under the Programme. The terms and conditions applicable to any Note in global form will differ from those terms and conditions which would apply to the Note were it in definitive form to the extent described under "Summary of Provisions Relating to the Notes while in Global Form" below.

1. Introduction

- (a) Programme: Fortum Oyj (the "Issuer") has established a Euro Medium Term Note Programme (the "Programme") for the issuance of up to €6,000,000,000 in aggregate principal amount of notes (the "Notes").
- (b) Final Terms: Notes issued under the Programme may comprise one or more tranches of Notes which are identical in all respects (each a "Tranche") of Notes. Each Tranche is the subject of a pricing supplement (the "Final Terms") which supplements these terms and conditions (the "Conditions"). The terms and conditions applicable to any particular Tranche of Notes are these Conditions as supplemented, amended and/or replaced by the relevant Final Terms. In the event of any inconsistency between these Conditions and/or the Trust Deed and/or the relevant Final Terms, the relevant Final Terms shall prevail.
- (c) Trust Deed: The Notes are constituted by, are subject to, and have the benefit of, a trust deed dated 5 May 2011 (the "Trust Deed") made between the Issuer and The Law Debenture Trust Corporation p.l.c. as trustee (the "Trustee", which expression shall include all persons for the time being the trustee or trustees appointed under the Trust Deed).

- (e) Exchange Free of Charge: The exchange and transfer of Registered Notes and Note Certificates on registration, transfer, partial redemption or exercise of an option shall be effected without charge by or on behalf of the Issuer, the Registrar or any Transfer Agent, but upon payment of any tax, duty or other governmental charges that may be imposed in relation to it (or the giving of such indemnity as the Issuer, the Registrar or the relevant Transfer Agent may require).
- (f) Closed Periods: No Noteholder may require the transfer of a Registered Note to be registered (i) during the period of 15 days ending on the due date for redemption of, or payment of any Instalment Amount in respect of, that Note, (ii) during the period of 15 days before any date on which Notes may be called for redemption by the Issuer at its option pursuant to Condition 11(c) (Redemption at the option of the Issuer), (iii) after any such Note has been called for redemption or (iv) during the period of seven days ending on (and including) any Record Date (as defined in Condition 12B (Payments - Registered Notes)).

- (g) Regulations Concerning Transfers of Registered Notes: All transfers of Registered Notes and entries on the Register are subject to the detailed regulations concerning the transfer of Notes scheduled to the Agency Agreement. The regulations may be changed by the Issuer with the prior written approval of the Trustee and the Registrar. A copy of the current regulations will be mailed (free of charge) by the Registrar to any holder of Registered Notes who requests in writing a copy of such regulations.

5. Status

The Notes constitute direct, general and unconditional obligations of the Issuer which will at all times rank pari passu among themselves and at least pari passu with all other present and future unsecured obligations of the Issuer, save for such obligations as may be preferred by provisions of law that are both mandatory and of general application.

6. Negative Pledge

So long as any Note remains outstanding, the Issuer shall not, and the Issuer shall procure that none of its Principal Subsidiaries will, create or permit to subsist any Security Interest, other than a Permitted Security Interest, upon the whole or any part of its present or future undertaking, assets or revenues (including uncalled capital) to secure any Relevant Indebtedness, Guarantee of Relevant Indebtedness without (a) at the same time or prior thereto securing the Notes equally and rateably therewith or (b) providing such other security for the Notes (i) as may be approved by an Extraordinary Resolution (as defined in the Trust Deed) of Noteholders or (ii) as the Trustee in its absolute discretion deems not materially less beneficial in the interests of the Noteholders.

7. Fixed Rate Note Provisions

- (a) Application: This Condition 7 is applicable to the Notes only if the Fixed Rate Note Provisions are specified in the relevant Final Terms as being applicable.
- (b) Accrual of interest: The Notes bear interest from the Interest Commencement Date at the Rate of Interest payable in arrear on each Interest Payment Date, subject as provided in Condition 12 (Payments). For so long as any of the Notes is represented by a Global Note, interest will be calculated on the aggregate outstanding nominal amount of the Notes represented by such Global Note (or, if they are Partly Paid Notes, the aggregate amount paid up). In respect of each definitive Note, interest will be calculated on its outstanding nominal amount or, if it is a Partly Paid Note, the amount paid up. Each Note will cease to bear interest from the due date for final redemption unless, upon due presentation, payment of the Redemption Amount is improperly withheld or refused, in which case it will continue to bear interest in accordance with the Trust Deed.
- (c) Fixed Coupon Amount: If the Notes are in definitive form, the amount of interest payable in respect of each Note for any Interest Period shall be the relevant Fixed Coupon Amount and, if the Notes are in more than one Specified Denomination, shall be the relevant Fixed Coupon Amount in respect of the relevant Specified Denomination.
- (d) Calculation of interest amount: If interest is required to be calculated for a period other than an Interest Period or if in the case of Notes in definitive form, a Fixed Coupon Amount is not specified the amount of interest shall be calculated by applying the Rate of Interest to:
 - (A) in the case of Notes which are represented by a Global Note, the aggregate outstanding nominal amount of the Fixed Rate Notes represented by such Global Note (or, if they are Partly Paid Notes, the aggregate amount paid up); or
 - (B) in the case of Fixed Rate Notes in definitive form, the Calculation Amount, and in each case, multiplying the product by the relevant Day Count Fraction and rounding the resulting figure to the nearest sub-unit of the Specified Currency (half a sub-unit being rounded upwards). For this purpose and Condition 8 a "sub-unit" means, in the case of any currency other than euro, the lowest amount of such currency that is available as legal tender in the country of such currency and, in the case of euro, means one cent.

Where the Specified Denomination of a Note in definitive form comprises more than one Calculation Amount, the amount of interest payable in respect of such Note shall be the aggregate of the amounts (determined in the manner provided above) for each Calculation Amount comprising the Specified Denomination without any further rounding.

8. Floating Rate Note and Index-Linked Interest Note Provisions

- (a) Application: This Condition 8 is applicable to the Notes only if the Floating Rate Note Provisions or the Index-Linked Interest Note Provisions are specified in the relevant Final Terms as being applicable.
- (b) Accrual of interest: The Notes bear interest from the Interest Commencement Date at the Rate of Interest payable in arrear on each Interest Payment Date, subject as provided in Condition 12 (Payments). For so long as any of the Notes is represented by a Global Note, interest will be calculated on the aggregate outstanding nominal amount of the Notes represented by such Global Note (or, if they are Partly Paid Notes, the aggregate amount paid up). In respect of each definitive Note, interest will be calculated on its outstanding nominal amount or, if it is a Partly Paid Note, the amount paid up. Each Note will cease to bear interest from the due date for final redemption unless, upon due presentation, payment of the Redemption Amount is improperly withheld or refused, in which case it will continue to bear interest in accordance with the Trust Deed.
- (c) Screen Rate Determination: If Screen Rate Determination is specified in the relevant Final Terms as the manner in which the Rate(s) of Interest is/are to be determined, the Rate of Interest applicable to the Notes for each Interest Period will be determined by the Calculation Agent on the following basis:
 - (i) if the Reference Rate is a composite quotation or customarily supplied by one entity, the Calculation Agent will determine the Reference Rate which appears on the Relevant Screen Page as of the Relevant Time on the relevant Interest Determination Date;
 - (ii) in any other case, the Calculation Agent will determine the arithmetic mean of the Reference Rates which appear on the Relevant Screen Page as of the Relevant Time on the relevant Interest Determination Date;
 - (iii) if, in the case of (i) above, such rate does not appear on that page or, in the case of (ii) above, fewer than two such rates appear on that page or if, in either case, the Relevant Screen Page is unavailable, the Calculation Agent will:
 - (A) request the principal Relevant Financial Centre office of each the Reference Banks to provide a quotation of the Reference Rate at approximately the Relevant Time on the Interest Determination Date to prime banks in the Relevant Financial Centre interbank market in an amount that is representative for a single transaction in that market at that time; and
 - (B) determine the arithmetic mean of such quotations; and
 - (iv) if fewer than two such quotations are provided as requested, the Calculation Agent will determine the arithmetic mean of the rates (being the nearest to the Reference Rate, as determined by the Calculation Agent) quoted by major banks in the Principal Financial Centre of the Specified Currency, selected by the Calculation Agent, at approximately 11.00 a.m. (local time in the Principal Financial Centre of the Specified Currency) on the first day of the relevant Interest Period for loans in the Specified Currency to leading European banks for a period equal to the relevant Interest Period and in an amount that is representative for a single transaction in that market at that time, and the Rate of Interest for such Interest Period shall be the sum of the Margin and the rate or (as the case may be) the arithmetic mean so determined; provided, however, that if the Calculation Agent is unable to determine a rate or (as the case may be) an arithmetic mean in accordance with the above provisions in relation to any Interest Period, the Rate of Interest applicable to the Notes during such Interest Period will be the sum of the Margin and the rate or (as the case may be) the arithmetic mean last determined in relation to the Notes in respect of a preceding Interest Period.

- (d) ISDA Determination: If ISDA Determination is specified in the relevant Final Terms as the manner in which the Rate(s) of Interest is/are to be determined, the Rate of Interest applicable to the Notes for each Interest Period will be the sum of the Margin and the relevant ISDA Rate where "ISDA Rate" in relation to any Interest Period means a rate equal to the Floating Rate (as defined in the ISDA Definitions) that would be determined by the Calculation Agent under an interest rate swap transaction if the Calculation Agent were acting as Calculation Agent for that interest rate swap transaction under the terms of an agreement incorporating the ISDA Definitions and under which:
- (i) the Floating Rate Option (as defined in the ISDA Definitions) is as specified in the relevant Final Terms;
 - (ii) the Designated Maturity (as defined in the ISDA Definitions) is a period specified in the relevant Final Terms; and
 - (iii) the relevant Reset Date (as defined in the ISDA Definitions) is either (A) if the relevant Floating Rate Option is based on the London inter-bank offered rate (LIBOR) for a currency, the first day of that Interest Period or (B) in any other case, as specified in the relevant Final Terms.
- (e) Index-Linked Interest: If the Index-Linked Interest Note Provisions are specified in the relevant Final Terms as being applicable, the Rate(s) of Interest applicable to the Notes for each Interest Period will be determined in the manner specified in the relevant Final Terms.
- (f) Maximum or Minimum Rate of Interest: If any Maximum Rate of Interest or Minimum Rate of Interest is specified in the relevant Final Terms, then the Rate of Interest shall in no event be greater than the maximum or be less than the minimum so specified.
- (g) Calculation of Interest Amount: The Calculation Agent will, as soon as practicable after the time at which the Rate of Interest is to be determined in relation to each Interest Period, calculate the Interest Amount payable in respect of each Note for such Interest Period. The Interest Amount will be calculated by applying the Rate of Interest to:
- (A) in the case of Notes which are represented by a Global Note, the aggregate outstanding nominal amount of the Notes represented by such Global Note (or, if they are Partly Paid Notes, the aggregate amount paid up); or
 - (B) in the case of Notes in definitive form, the Calculation Amount;
- and in each case, multiplying the product by the relevant Day Count Fraction and rounding the resulting figure to the nearest sub-unit of the Specified Currency (half a sub-unit being rounded upwards). Where the Specified Denomination of a Note in definitive form comprises more than one Calculation Amount, the Interest Amount payable in respect of such Note shall be the aggregate of the amounts (determined in the manner provided above) for each Calculation Amount comprising the Specified Denomination without any further rounding.
- (h) Calculation of other amounts: If the relevant Final Terms specify that any other amount is to be calculated by the Calculation Agent, the Calculation Agent will, as soon as practicable after the time or times at which any such amount is to be determined, calculate the relevant amount. The relevant amount will be calculated by the Calculation Agent in the manner specified in the relevant Final Terms.
- (i) Publication: The Calculation Agent will cause each Rate of Interest and Interest Amount determined by it, together with the relevant Interest Payment Date, and any other amount(s) required to be determined by it together with any relevant payment date(s) to be notified to the Trustee, the Paying Agents and each listing authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system (if any) by which the Notes have then been admitted to listing, trading and/or quotation as soon as practicable after such determination but (in the case of each Rate of Interest, Interest Amount and Interest Payment Date) in any event not later than the first day of the relevant Interest Period. Notice thereof shall also promptly be given to the Noteholders. The Calculation Agent will be entitled to recalculate any Interest Amount (on the basis of the foregoing provisions) without notice in the event of an extension or shortening of the relevant Interest Period. If the Calculation Amount is less than the minimum Specified Denomination the Calculation Agent shall not be obliged to publish each Interest Amount but instead may publish only the Calculation Amount and the Interest Amount in respect of a Note having the minimum Specified Denomination.

- (j) Notifications etc: All notifications, opinions, determinations, certificates, calculations, quotations and decisions given, expressed, made or obtained for the purposes of this Condition by the Calculation Agent will (in the absence of manifest error) be binding on the Issuer, the Trustee, the Paying Agents, the Registrar, the Noteholders and the Couponholders and (subject as aforesaid) no liability to any such Person will attach to the Calculation Agent or the Trustee in connection with the exercise or nonexercise by it of its powers, duties and discretions for such purposes.
- (k) Certificates to be Final: All certificates, communications, opinions, determinations, calculations, quotations and decisions given, expressed, made or obtained for the purposes of the provisions of this Condition 8, whether by the Principal Paying Agent or, if applicable, the Calculation Agent, shall (in the absence of wilful default, bad faith or manifest error) be binding on the Issuer, the Trustee, the Paying Agents, the Registrar, the Calculation Agent (if applicable) and the Noteholders and the Couponholders and (in the absence as aforesaid) no liability to the Issuer, the Noteholders and the Couponholders shall attach to the Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent (if applicable) in connection with the exercise or non-exercise by it of its powers, duties and discretions pursuant to such provisions.
- (l) Determination or Calculation by Trustee: If the Calculation Agent fails at any time to determine a Rate of Interest or to calculate an Interest Amount, the Trustee will determine such Rate of Interest and make such determination or calculation which shall be deemed to have been made by the Calculation Agent. In doing so, the Trustee shall apply all of the provisions of these Conditions with any necessary consequential amendments to the extent that, in its sole opinion and with absolute discretion, it can do so and in all other respects it shall do so in such manner as it shall deem fair and reasonable in all the circumstances and will not be liable for any loss, liability, cost, charge or expense which may arise as a result thereof. Any such determination or calculation made by the Trustee shall be binding on the Issuer, Noteholders and Couponholders.

9. Zero Coupon Note Provisions

- (a) Application: This Condition 9 is applicable to the Notes only if the Zero Coupon Note Provisions are specified in the relevant Final Terms as being applicable.
- (b) Late payment on Zero Coupon Notes: If the Redemption Amount payable in respect of any Zero Coupon Note is improperly withheld or refused, the Redemption Amount shall thereafter be an amount equal to the sum of:
 - (i) the Reference Price; and
 - (ii) the product of the Accrual Yield (compounded annually) being applied to the Reference Price on the basis of the relevant Day Count Fraction from (and including) the Issue Date to (but excluding) whichever is the earlier of (i) the day on which all sums due in respect of such Note up to that day are received by or on behalf of the relevant Noteholder and (ii) the day which is seven days after the Principal Paying Agent has notified the Noteholders that it has received all sums due in respect of the Notes up to such seventh day (except to the extent that there is any subsequent default in payment).

10. Dual Currency Note Provisions

- (a) Application: This Condition 10 is applicable to the Notes only if the Dual Currency Note Provisions are specified in the relevant Final Terms as being applicable.

- (b) Rate of Interest: If the rate or amount of interest falls to be determined by reference to an exchange rate, the rate or amount of interest payable shall be determined in the manner specified in the relevant Final Terms.

11. Redemption and Purchase

- (a) Scheduled redemption: Unless previously redeemed, or purchased and cancelled, the Notes will be redeemed at their Final Redemption Amount on the Maturity Date, subject as provided in Condition 12 (Payments).
- (b) Redemption for tax reasons: The Notes may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer in whole, but not in part:
- (i) at any time (if neither the Floating Rate Note Provisions or the Index-Linked Interest Note Provisions are specified in the relevant Final Terms as being applicable); or
 - (ii) on any Interest Payment Date (if the Floating Rate Note Provisions or the Index-Linked Interest Note Provisions are specified in the relevant Final Terms as being applicable), on giving not less than 30 nor more than 60 days' notice to the Noteholders (which notice shall be irrevocable), at their Early Redemption Amount (Tax), together with interest accrued (if any) to the date fixed for redemption, if:

- (A) the Issuer satisfies the Trustee immediately prior to the giving of notice by the Issuer referred to above that it has or will become obliged to pay additional amounts as provided or referred to in Condition 13 (Taxation) as a result of any change in, or amendment to, the laws or regulations of Finland or any political subdivision or any authority thereof or therein having power to tax, or any change in the application or official interpretation of such laws or regulations (including a holding by a court of competent jurisdiction), which change or amendment becomes effective on or after the date of issue of the first Tranche of the Notes; and
- (B) such obligation cannot be avoided by the Issuer taking reasonable measures available to it, provided, however, that no such notice of redemption shall be given earlier than:

- (1) where the Notes may be redeemed at any time, 90 days prior to the earliest date on which the Issuer would be obliged to pay such additional amounts if a payment in respect of the Notes were then due; or
- (2) where the Notes may be redeemed only on an Interest Payment Date, 60 days prior to the Interest Payment Date occurring immediately before the earliest date on which the Issuer would be obliged to pay such additional amounts if a payment in respect of the Notes were then due.

Prior to the publication of any notice of redemption pursuant to this paragraph, the Issuer shall deliver to the Trustee (A) a certificate satisfactory to the Trustee signed by two Authorised Signatories of the Issuer stating that the Issuer is entitled to effect such redemption and setting forth a statement of facts showing that the conditions precedent to the right of the Issuer so to redeem have occurred of (and such evidence shall be sufficient to the Trustee and conclusive and binding on the Noteholders) and (B) an opinion satisfactory to the Trustee of independent legal advisers of recognised standing to the effect that the Issuer has or will become obliged to pay such additional amounts as a result of such change or amendment and such evidence shall be sufficient to the Trustee and conclusive and binding upon the Noteholders. Upon the expiry of any such notice as is referred to in this Condition 11(b), the Issuer shall be bound to redeem the Notes in accordance with this Condition 11(b).

- (c) Redemption at the option of the Issuer. If the Call Option is specified in the relevant Final Terms as being applicable, the Notes may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer in whole or, if so specified in the relevant Final Terms, in part on any Optional Redemption Date (Call) at the relevant Optional Redemption Amount (Call) on the Issuer's giving not less than 15 nor more than 30 days' notice to the Noteholders and having notified the Trustee prior to the provision of such notice (which notice shall be irrevocable and shall oblige the Issuer to redeem the Notes or, as the case may be, the Notes specified in such notice on the relevant Optional Redemption Date (Call) at the Optional Redemption Amount (Call) plus accrued interest (if any) to such date).

- (d) Partial redemption: If the Notes are to be redeemed in part only on any date in accordance with Condition 11(c) (Redemption at the option of the Issuer), in the case of Bearer Notes, the Notes to be redeemed shall be selected by the drawing of lots in such place as the Trustee approves and in such manner as the Trustee considers appropriate, subject to compliance with applicable law and the rules of each listing authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system (if any) by which the Notes have then been admitted to listing, trading and/or quotation, and the notice to Noteholders referred to in Condition 11(c) (Redemption at the option of the Issuer) shall specify the serial numbers of the Notes so to be redeemed and, in the case of Registered Notes, each shall be redeemed in part in the proportion which the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes to be redeemed on the relevant Optional Redemption Date (Call) bears to the aggregate principal amount outstanding on such date. If any Maximum Redemption Amount or Minimum Redemption Amount is specified in the relevant Final Terms, then the Optional Redemption Amount (Call) shall in no event be greater than the maximum or be less than the minimum so specified.
- (e) Redemption at the option of Noteholders: If the Put Option is specified in the relevant Final Terms as being applicable, the Issuer shall, at the option of the holder of any Note redeem such Note on the Optional Redemption Date (Put) specified in the relevant Put Option Notice at the relevant Optional Redemption Amount (Put) together with interest (if any) accrued to such date. In order to exercise the option contained in this Condition 11(e), the holder of a Note must, not less than 15 nor more than 30 days before the relevant Optional Redemption Date (Put), deposit (in the case of Bearer Notes) with any Paying Agent such Note together with all unmatured Coupons relating thereto (or in the case of Registered Note) the Note Certificate representing such Note(s) with the Registrar or any Transfer Agent at its Specified Office and a duly completed Put Option Notice in the form obtainable from any Paying Agent, the Registrar or any Transfer Agent (as applicable) within the notice period. The Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or the Registrar with which a Note is so deposited shall deliver a duly completed Put Option Receipt to the depositing Noteholder. No Note, once deposited with a duly completed Put Option Notice in accordance with this Condition 11(e), may be withdrawn; provided, however, that if, prior to the relevant Optional Redemption Date (Put), any such Note becomes immediately due and payable or, upon due presentation of any such Note on the relevant Optional Redemption Date (Put), payment of the redemption moneys is improperly withheld or refused, the relevant Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or the Registrar shall mail notification thereof to the depositing Noteholder at such address as may have been given by such Noteholder in the relevant Put Option Notice and shall hold such Note at its Specified Office for collection by the depositing Noteholder against surrender of the relevant Put Option Receipt. For so long as any outstanding Note is held by a Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or the Registrar in accordance with this Condition 11(e), the depositor of such Note and not such Paying Agent, Transfer Agent or the Registrar shall be deemed to be the holder of such Note for all purposes.
- (f) No other redemption: The Issuer shall not be entitled to redeem the Notes otherwise than as provided in paragraphs (a) to (e) above.
- (g) Early redemption of Zero Coupon Notes: Unless otherwise specified in the relevant Final Terms, the Redemption Amount payable on redemption of a Zero Coupon Note at any time before the Maturity Date shall be an amount equal to the sum of:
 - (i) the Reference Price; and
 - (ii) the product of the Accrual Yield (compounded annually) being applied to the Reference Price from (and including) the Issue Date to (but excluding) the date fixed for redemption or (as the case may be) the date upon which the Note becomes due and payable.

Where such calculation is to be made for a period which is not a whole number of years, the calculation in respect of the period of less than a full year shall be made on the basis of such Day

Count Fraction as may be specified in the Final Terms for the purposes of this Condition 1 l(g) or, if none is so specified, a Day Count Fraction of 30E/360.

- (h) Purchase: The Issuer or any of its Subsidiaries may at any time purchase Notes in the open market or otherwise and at any price, provided that all unmatured Coupons are purchased therewith. Such Notes so purchased may be held, reissued, resold or, at the option of the Issuer or the relevant Subsidiary surrendered to any Paying Agent and/or the Registrar for cancellation.
- (i) Cancellation: All Notes so redeemed by the Issuer or any of its Subsidiaries and any unmatured Coupons attached to or surrendered with them shall be cancelled and may not be reissued or resold. All Notes so cancelled (together with all unmatured Coupons cancelled therewith) shall be forwarded to the Principal Paying Agent (which shall notify the Registrar of such cancelled Notes in the case of Registered Notes) and cannot be reissued or resold.

12. Payments

12A. Payments - Bearer Notes

- (a) Bearer Notes: This Condition 12A is only applicable to Bearer Notes.
- (b) Principal: Payments of principal shall be made only against presentation and (provided that payment is made in full) surrender of Notes at the Specified Office of any Paying Agent outside the United States by cheque drawn in the currency in which the payment is due on, or by transfer to an account denominated in that currency (or, if that currency is euro, any other account to which euro may be credited or transferred) and maintained by the payee with, a bank in the Principal Financial Centre of that currency (in the case of a sterling cheque, a town clearing branch of a bank in London).
- (c) Interest: Payments of interest shall, subject to paragraph (h) below, be made only against presentation and (provided that payment is made in full) surrender of the appropriate Coupons at the Specified Office of any Paying Agent outside the United States in the manner described in paragraph (a) above.
- (d) Payments in New York City: Payments of principal or interest may be made at the Specified Office of a Paying Agent in New York City if (i) the Issuer has appointed Paying Agents outside the United States with the reasonable expectation that such Paying Agents will be able to make payment of the full amount of the interest on the Notes in the currency in which the payment is due when due, (ii) payment of the full amount of such interest at the offices of all such Paying Agents is illegal or effectively precluded by exchange controls or other similar restrictions and (iii) payment is permitted by applicable United States law.
- (e) Payments subject to fiscal laws: All payments in respect of the Notes are subject in all cases to any applicable fiscal or other laws and regulations in the place of payment, but without prejudice to the provisions of Condition 13 (Taxation). No commissions or expenses shall be charged to the Noteholders or Couponholders in respect of such payments.
- (f) Deductions for unmatured Coupons: If the relevant Final Terms specify that the Fixed Rate Note Provisions are applicable and a Note is presented without all unmatured Coupons relating thereto:
 - (i) if the aggregate amount of the missing Coupons is less than or equal to the amount of principal due for payment, a sum equal to the aggregate amount of the missing Coupons will be deducted from the amount of principal due for payment; provided, however, that if the gross amount available for payment is less than the amount of principal due for payment, the sum deducted will be that proportion of the aggregate amount of such missing Coupons which the gross amount actually available for payment bears to the amount of principal due for payment;
 - (ii) if the aggregate amount of the missing Coupons is greater than the amount of principal due for payment:
 - (A) so many of such missing Coupons shall become void (in inverse order of maturity) as will result in the aggregate amount of the remainder of such missing Coupons (the "Relevant Coupons") being equal to the amount of principal due for payment; provided, however, that where this sub-paragraph would otherwise require a fraction of a missing Coupon to become void, such missing Coupon shall become void in its entirety; and

- (B) a sum equal to the aggregate amount of the Relevant Coupons (or, if less, the amount of principal due for payment) will be deducted from the amount of principal due for payment; provided, however, that, if the gross amount available for payment is less than the amount of principal due for payment, the sum deducted will be that proportion of the aggregate amount of the Relevant Coupons (or, as the case may be, the amount of principal due for payment) which the gross amount actually available for payment bears to the amount of principal due for payment.

Each sum of principal so deducted shall be paid in the manner provided in paragraph (a) above against presentation and (provided that payment is made in full) surrender of the relevant missing Coupons.

- (g) Unmatured Coupons void: If the relevant Final Terms specify that this Condition 12(g) is applicable or that the Floating Rate Note Provisions or the Index-Linked Interest Note Provisions are applicable, on the due date for final redemption of any Note or early redemption of such Note pursuant to Condition 11(b) (Redemption for tax reasons), Condition 11(e) (Redemption at the option of Noteholders), Condition 11(c) (Redemption at the option of the Issuer) or Condition 14 (Events of Default), all unmatured Coupons relating thereto (whether or not still attached) shall become void and no payment will be made in respect thereof.
- (h) Payments on business days: If the due date for payment of any amount in respect of any Note or Coupon is not a Payment Business Day, the holder shall not be entitled to payment in the relevant place of the amount due until the next succeeding Payment Business Day in such place and shall not be entitled to any further interest or other payment in respect of any such delay.
- (i) Payments other than in respect of matured Coupons: Payments of interest other than in respect of matured Coupons shall be made only against presentation of the relevant Notes at the Specified Office of any Paying Agent outside the United States (or in New York City if permitted by paragraph (c) above).
- (j) Partial payments: If a Paying Agent makes a partial payment in respect of any Note or Coupon presented to it for payment, such Paying Agent will endorse thereon a statement indicating the amount and date of such payment.
- (k) Exchange of Talons: On or after the maturity date of the final Coupon which is (or was at the time of issue) part of a Coupon Sheet relating to the Notes, the Talon forming part of such Coupon Sheet may be exchanged at the Specified Office of the Principal Paying Agent or the Paying Agent in Luxembourg for a further Coupon Sheet (including, if appropriate, a further Talon but excluding any Coupons in respect of which claims have already become void pursuant to Condition 15 (Prescription)). Upon the due date for redemption of any Note, any unexchanged Talon relating to such Note shall become void and no Coupon will be delivered in respect of such Talon.

12B. Payments - Registered Notes

- (a) Registered Notes: This Condition 12B is applicable in relation to Registered Notes.
- (b) Principal and Interest: Payments of principal and interest on redemption shall be made against presentation and (provided that payment is made in full) surrender of Note Certificates at the Specified Office of the Registrar.
- (c) Payments: Payment of amounts (whether principal, interest or otherwise) due in respect of Notes will be paid to the holder thereof as appearing in the Register as at opening of business (local time in the place of the Specified Office of the Registrar) on the fifteenth day before the due date for such payment (the "Record Date").

- (d) Payments subject to fiscal laws: All payments in respect of the Notes are subject in all cases to any applicable fiscal or other laws and regulations in the place of payment, but without prejudice to the provisions of Condition 13 (Taxation). No commissions or expenses shall be charged to the Noteholders in respect of such payments.
- (e) Partial payments: If a Paying Agent makes a partial payment in respect of any Note, the Issuer shall procure that the amount and date of such payment are noted on the Register and, in the case of partial payment upon presentation of a Note Certificate, that a statement indicating the amount and the date of such payment is endorsed on the relevant Note Certificate.
- (f) Receipt: Payment of amounts (whether principal, interest or otherwise) due in respect of Notes will be made in the currency in which such amount is due by cheque posted to the address (as recorded in the Register on the relevant Record Date) of the holder thereof on the relevant due date for payment unless prior to the relevant Record Date the holder thereof has applied to the Registrar and the Registrar has acknowledged such application for payment to be made to a designated account denominated in the relevant currency or, if the currency is euro, any other account to which euro may be credited and transferred (in the case aforesaid, a non-resident account with an authorised foreign exchange bank) in which case payment shall be made on the relevant due date for payment by transfer to such account. In the case of payment by transfer to an account, if the due date for any such payment is not a Payment Business Day, then the holder thereof will not be entitled to payment thereof until the first day thereafter which is a Payment Business Day and no further payment on account of interest or otherwise shall be due in respect of such postponed payment unless there is a subsequent failure to pay in accordance with the Conditions in which event interest shall continue to accrue.

13. Taxation

- (a) Gross up: All payments of principal and interest in respect of the Notes and the Coupons by or on behalf of the Issuer shall be made free and clear of, and without withholding or deduction for or on account of, any present or future taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges of whatever nature imposed, levied, collected, withheld or assessed by or on behalf of Finland or any political subdivision therein or any authority therein or thereof having power to tax, unless the withholding or deduction of such taxes, duties, assessments, or governmental charges is required by law. In that event, the Issuer shall pay such additional amounts as will result in receipt by the Noteholders and the Couponholders after such withholding or deduction of such amounts as would have been received by them had no such withholding or deduction been required, except that no such additional amounts shall be payable in respect of any Note or Coupon presented for payment:
 - (i) by or on behalf of a holder which is liable to such taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges in respect of such Note or Coupon by reason of its having some connection with Finland or any political subdivision therein or any authority therein or thereof by which such taxes, duties, assessments or charges have been imposed, levied, collected, withheld or assessed other than the mere holding of the Note or Coupon; or
 - (ii) where such withholding or deduction is imposed on a payment to an individual and is required to be made pursuant to European Council Directive 2003/48/EC on the taxation of savings income or any law implementing or complying with, or introduced in order to conform to, such Directive; or
 - (iii) by or on behalf of a holder who would have been able to avoid such withholding or deduction by presenting the relevant Note or Coupon to another Paying Agent in a Member State of the EU; or
 - (iv) more than 30 days after the Relevant Date except to the extent that the holder of such Note or Coupon would have been entitled to such additional amounts on presenting such Note or Coupon for payment on the last day of such period of 30 days.

14. Events of Default

The Trustee at its discretion may, and if so requested in writing by the holders of at least one-quarter in principal amount of the Notes then outstanding or if so directed by an Extraordinary Resolution shall

- (b) Breach of other obligations: the Issuer defaults in the performance or observance of any of its other obligations under or in respect of the Notes or the Trust Deed and such default remains unremedied for 45 days after written notice thereof, addressed to the Issuer by the Trustee, has been delivered to the Issuer; or
- (c) Cross-default of Issuer or Principal Subsidiary:

- (d) Insolvency, etc: (i) the Issuer or any of its Principal Subsidiaries becomes insolvent or is unable to pay its debts as they fall due, (ii) an administrator or liquidator of the Issuer or any of its Principal Subsidiaries for all or substantially all of the undertaking, assets and revenues of the Issuer or any of its Principal Subsidiaries is appointed and such appointment is not discharged within 45 days, (iii) the Issuer or any of its Principal Subsidiaries makes a general assignment or an arrangement or composition with or for the benefit of its creditors or declares a moratorium in respect of any of its Indebtedness or any guarantee or indemnity of any Indebtedness given by it, save for the purposes of an amalgamation, merger, consolidation, reorganisation, reconstruction or other similar arrangement (A) in the case of a Principal Subsidiary not involving or arising out of the insolvency of such Principal Subsidiary and under which all or substantially all of its assets are transferred to the Issuer or any of its other Subsidiaries, or (B) in the case of a Principal Subsidiary under which all or substantially all of its assets are transferred to a third party or parties (whether associated or not) for consideration received by the Issuer or a Subsidiary on an arm's length basis, or (C) in the case of a Principal Subsidiary under which all or substantially all of its assets are transferred and the transferee is or immediately upon such transfer becomes a

Principal Subsidiary, or (D) on terms previously approved in writing by the Trustee or by an Extraordinary Resolution of the Noteholders; or

- (e) Winding up, etc: an order is made or an effective resolution is passed for the winding up, liquidation or dissolution of the Issuer or any of its Principal Subsidiaries, save for the purposes of an amalgamation, merger, consolidation, reorganisation, reconstruction or other similar arrangement (A) in the case of a Principal Subsidiary not involving or arising out of the insolvency of such Principal Subsidiary and under which all or substantially all of its assets are transferred to the Issuer or any of its Subsidiaries, or (B) in the case of a Principal Subsidiary under which all or substantially all of its assets are transferred to a third party or parties (whether associated or not) for consideration received by the Issuer or a Subsidiary on an arm's length basis, or (C) in the case of a Principal Subsidiary under which all or substantially all of its assets are transferred and the transferee is or immediately upon such transfer becomes a Principal Subsidiary, or (D) on terms previously approved in writing by the Trustee or by an Extraordinary Resolution of the Noteholders.

A report by two Authorised Signatories of the Issuer that in their opinion a Subsidiary of the Issuer is or was or was not at any particular time or throughout any specified period a Principal Subsidiary shall, in the absence of manifest error, be conclusive and binding on all parties.

15. Prescription

Claims for principal and, in the case of Registered Notes only, interest on redemption shall become void unless the relevant Notes or Note Certificates (as the case may be) are presented for payment within ten years of the appropriate Relevant Date. Claims for interest in respect of Bearer Notes shall become void unless the relevant Coupons are presented for payment within five years of the appropriate Relevant Date.

16. Replacement of Notes, Coupons and Note Certificates

If any Note, Coupon or Note Certificate is lost, stolen, mutilated, defaced or destroyed, it may be replaced at the Specified Office of the Principal Paying Agent or the Paying Agent in London (in the case of Bearer Notes and Coupons) or of the Registrar (in the case of Registered Notes) (and, if the Notes are then admitted to listing, trading and/or quotation by any listing authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system which requires the appointment of a Paying Agent in any particular place, the Paying Agent having its Specified Office in the place required by such listing authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system), subject to all applicable laws and listing authority, stock exchange, and/or quotation system requirements, upon payment by the claimant of the expenses incurred in connection with such replacement and on such terms as to evidence, security, indemnity and otherwise as the Issuer may reasonably require. Mutilated or defaced Notes, Coupons or Note Certificates must be surrendered before replacements will be issued.

17. Trustee and Agents

The Trust Deed contains provisions for the indemnification of the Trustee and for its relief from responsibility, including provisions relieving it from taking proceeds to enforce payment unless indemnified to its satisfaction, and to be paid its costs and expenses in priority to the claims of Noteholders. In addition, the Trustee is entitled to enter into business transactions with the Issuer and any entity related to the Issuer without accounting for any profit.

In the exercise of its powers and discretions under these Conditions and the Trust Deed, the Trustee will have regard to the interests of the Noteholders as a class and will not be responsible for any consequence for individual holders of Notes or Coupons as a result of such holders being connected in any way with a particular territory or taxing jurisdiction.

In acting under the Agency Agreement and in connection with the Notes and the Coupons, the Paying Agents act solely as agents of the Issuer or, following the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Trustee and do not assume any obligations towards or relationship of agency or trust for or with any of the Noteholders or Couponholders.

The names of the initial Principal Paying Agent, the other initial Paying Agents, the initial Registrar and the other initial Transfer Agents and their initial Specified Offices are set out below.

The initial Calculation Agent (if any) is specified in the relevant Final Terms. The Issuer reserves the right with the prior written approval of the Trustee at any time to vary or terminate the appointment of any Paying Agent, Registrar or Transfer Agent and to appoint additional or other Paying Agents, Calculation Agents, Registrar or Transfer Agents; provided, however, that:

- (a) the Issuer shall at all times maintain a Principal Paying Agent, Registrar and a Transfer Agent; and
- (b) to the extent that such a paying agent exists, the Issuer shall ensure that it maintains a paying agent in an EU Member State that will not be obliged to withhold or deduct tax pursuant to European Council Directive 2003/48/EC or any law implementing or complying with, or introduced in order to conform to, such Directive;
- (c) if a Calculation Agent is specified in the relevant Final Terms, the Issuer shall at all times maintain a Calculation Agent; and
- (d) if and for so long as the Notes are admitted to listing, trading and/or quotation by any listing authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system which requires the appointment of a Paying Agent and if appropriate, a Registrar and Transfer Agent in any particular place, the Issuer shall maintain a Paying Agent, a Registrar and Transfer Agent having its Specified Office in the place required by such listing authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system.

Notice of any change in any of the Paying Agents or in their Specified Offices shall promptly be given to the Noteholders.

18. Meetings of Noteholders; Modification, Waiver and Substitution

- (a) Meetings of Noteholders: The Trust Deed contains provisions for convening meetings of Noteholders to consider matters relating to the Notes, including the modification of any provision of the Trust Deed. Any such modification may be made if sanctioned by an Extraordinary Resolution, as defined in the Trust Deed. Such a meeting may be convened by the Issuer or by the Trustee and shall be convened by the Trustee (subject to its being indemnified and/or secured to its satisfaction) upon the request in writing of Noteholders holding not less than one-tenth of the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes. The quorum at any meeting convened to vote on an Extraordinary Resolution will be two or more Persons holding or representing more than half of the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes or, at any adjourned meeting, two or more Persons being or representing Noteholders whatever the principal amount of the Notes held or represented; provided, however, that Reserved Matters may only be sanctioned by an Extraordinary Resolution passed at a meeting of Noteholders at which two or more Persons holding or representing not less than two-thirds or, at any adjourned meeting, one third of the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes form a quorum. Any Extraordinary Resolution duly passed at any such meeting shall be binding on all the Noteholders and Couponholders, whether present or not.

In addition, a resolution in writing signed by or on behalf of all Noteholders who for the time being are entitled to receive notice of a meeting of Noteholders will take effect as if it were an Extraordinary Resolution. Such a resolution in writing may be contained in one document or several documents in the same form, each signed by or on behalf of one or more Noteholders.

- (b) Modification and Waiver: The Trustee may agree, without the consent of the Noteholders or the Couponholders to (i) any modification of any provision of these Conditions or the Trust Deed which is of a formal, minor or technical nature or is made to correct a manifest or proven error and (ii) any other modification (except as mentioned in the Trust Deed and other than in respect of a Reserved Matter) and any waiver or authorisation of any breach or proposed breach of any provision of these Conditions or the Trust Deed (other than a breach or proposed breach relating to the subject of a Reserved Matter) which is, in the opinion of the Trustee, not materially prejudicial to the interests of the Noteholders. In addition, the parties to the Agency Agreement may agree to modify any provision thereof, save the Trustee shall only agree without the consent of the Noteholders to such modification if, in the opinion of the Trustee, such modification is not materially prejudicial to the interests of the Noteholders. Any such modification, authorisation or waiver shall be binding on the Noteholders and Couponholders and, unless the Trustee agrees otherwise, shall be notified to the Noteholders and Couponholders as soon as practicable thereafter.

- (c) Substitution: The Trustee may, without the consent of the Noteholders, agree with the Issuer, to the substitution in place of the Issuer (or of any previous substitute under this Condition) as the principal debtor under the Notes, Receipts, Coupons and the Trust Deed of another company, being a Subsidiary of the Issuer, subject to (a) the Notes being unconditionally and irrevocably guaranteed by the Issuer, (b) the Trustee being satisfied that the interests of the Noteholders will not be materially prejudiced by the substitution and (c) certain other conditions set out in the Trust Deed being complied with. Notice of such substitution will be given to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 21 (Notices) and to the Luxembourg Stock Exchange.

19. Enforcement

The Trustee may at any time, at its discretion and without notice, institute such proceedings as it thinks fit to enforce its rights under the Trust Deed in respect of the Notes, but it shall not be bound to do so unless:

- (a) it has been so requested in writing by the holders of at least one quarter of the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes or has been so directed by an Extraordinary Resolution; and
- (b) it has been indemnified or provided with security to its satisfaction.

No Noteholder may proceed directly against the Issuer unless the Trustee, having become bound to do so, fails to do so within a reasonable time and such failure is continuing.

20. Further Issues

The Issuer may from time to time, without the consent of the Noteholders or the Couponholders in accordance with the Trust Deed, create and issue further notes having the same terms and conditions as the Notes in all respects (or in all respects except for the first payment of interest) so as to form a single series with the Notes.

21. Notices

Notices regarding Registered Notes will be deemed to be validly given if sent by first class mail or (if posted to an overseas address) by air mail to them at their respective addresses as recorded in the Register and will be deemed to have been validly given on the fourth day after the date of such mailing. With respect to Registered Notes admitted to trading on, and listed on the Official List of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange, any notices to holders will also be published in a leading daily newspaper having general circulation in Luxembourg (which is expected to be the Luxemburger Wort) or published on the website of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (www.bourse.lu) and, in addition to the foregoing, will be deemed validly given only after the date of such publication.

Notices regarding Bearer Notes shall be valid if published in a leading English language daily newspaper published in London (which is expected to be the Financial Times) and, if the Notes are admitted to trading on, and listed on the Official List of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange in a leading newspaper having general circulation in Luxembourg (which is expected to be the Luxemburger Wort) or published on the website of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (www.bourse.lu) or in either case, if such publication is not practicable, in a leading English language daily newspaper having general circulation in Europe. Any such notice shall be deemed to have been given on the date of first publication (or if required to be published in more than one newspaper, on the first date on which publication shall have been made in all the required newspapers). Couponholders shall be deemed for all purposes to have notice of the contents of any notice given to the Noteholders.

If publication as provided above is not practicable, a notice will be given in such other manner, and will be deemed to have been given on such date, as the Trustee shall approve.

22. Rounding

For the purposes of any calculations referred to in these Conditions (unless otherwise specified in these Conditions or the relevant Final Terms), (a) all percentages resulting from such calculations will be rounded, if necessary, to the nearest one hundred-thousandth of a percentage point (with 0.000005 per cent., being rounded up to 0.00001 per cent.), (b) all United States dollar amounts used in or resulting from such calculations will be rounded to the nearest cent (with one half cent being rounded up), (c) all Japanese Yen amounts used in or resulting from such calculations will be rounded downwards to the next lower whole Japanese Yen amount, and (d) all amounts denominated in any other currency used in or resulting from such calculations will be rounded to the nearest two decimal places in such currency, with 0.005 being rounded upwards unless the Trustee, at the request of the Issuer, agrees that the market practice is otherwise.

23. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

- (a) Governing law: The Notes, the Trust Deed and any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with the Notes and the Trust Deed are governed by English law.
- (b) Jurisdiction: The Issuer has in the Trust Deed: (i) agreed for the benefit of the Trustee and the Noteholders that the courts of England have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute (a "Dispute") arising out of or in connection with the Notes (including a dispute relating to the existence, validity or termination of the Notes or any non-contractual obligation arising out of or in connection with the Notes) or the consequences of their nullity; (ii) agreed that those courts are the most appropriate and convenient courts to settle any Dispute and, accordingly, that it will not argue that any other courts are more appropriate or convenient; (iii) designated a person in England to accept service of any process on its behalf; and (iv) consented to the enforcement of any judgment. The Trust Deed also states that nothing contained in the Trust Deed prevents the Trustee or any of the Noteholders from taking proceedings relating to a Dispute ("Proceedings") in any other courts with jurisdiction and that, to the extent allowed by law, the Trustee or any of the Noteholders may take concurrent Proceedings in any number of jurisdictions.

SUMMARY OF PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE NOTES WHILE IN GLOBAL FORM

Each Global Note and Global Note Certificate contains provisions that apply to the Notes that they represent, some of which modify the effect of the Conditions of the Notes set out in this Base Prospectus. The following is a summary of those provisions:

(A) PAYMENTS

No payment falling due after the Exchange Date applicable to any Global Note will be made on any Global Note unless exchange for an interest in, as appropriate, a Permanent Global Note or for Definitive Notes is improperly withheld or refused. Payments on any Temporary Global Note issued in compliance with the D Rules before the Exchange Date will only be made against presentation of certification as to non-U.S. beneficial ownership in the form set out in the Agency Agreement. All payments in respect of Bearer Notes will be made against presentation for endorsement and, if no further payment is due to be made in respect of such Notes, surrender of that Global Note to or to the order of the Principal Paying Agent, or such other Paying Agent as shall have been notified to the Noteholders for such purpose. A record of each payment so made will be endorsed on each such Global Note, which endorsement will be prima facie evidence that such payment has been made in respect of the Notes. Any final payments of principal and interest on redemption in respect of Registered Notes represented by a Global Note Certificate will be made against presentation and surrender of that Global Note Certificate to or to the order of the Registrar.

In the case of a Global Note or a Global Note Certificate, the Payment Business Day shall be, if the currency of payment is euro, any day which is a TARGET Settlement Day and a day on which dealings in foreign currencies may be carried on in each (if any) Additional Financial Centre; or, if the currency of payment is not euro, any day which is a day on which dealings in foreign currencies may be carried on in the Principal Financial Centre of the currency of payment and in each (if any) Additional Financial Centre.

Each payment in respect of a Global Note Certificate will be made to the person shown as the Holder in the Register at the close of business (in the relevant clearing system) on the Clearing System Business Day before the due date for such payment (the "Record Date") where "Clearing System Business Day" means a day on which each clearing system for which the Global Note Certificate is being held is open for business.

(B) PRESCRIPTION

Claims against the Issuer in respect of Notes issued by it that are represented by a Permanent Global Note will become void unless it is presented for payment within a period of 10 years (in the case of principal) and five years (in the case of interest) from the appropriate Relevant Date. Claims against the Issuer in respect of the principal of Notes issued by it that are represented by a Global Note Certificate will become void unless such Note is presented for payment within a period of 10 years from the appropriate Relevant Date.

(C) MEETINGS

The holder of a Global Note or Global Note Certificate shall (unless such Global Note or Global Note Certificate represents only one Note) be treated as being two persons for the purposes of any quorum requirements at any meeting of Noteholders. The holder of a Permanent Global Note shall be treated as having one vote in respect of each minimum Denomination of Notes for which such Permanent Global Note may be exchanged. The holders of Registered Notes will be entitled to one vote in respect of each Note comprising such Noteholder's holding, whether or not represented by a Global Note Certificate.

(D) CANCELLATION

Cancellation of any Bearer Note represented by a Permanent Global Note that is required by the Conditions to be cancelled (other than upon its redemption) will be effected by reduction in the principal amount of the relevant Permanent Global Note and evidenced by the appropriate notation in the relevant schedule to such Permanent Global Note.

(E) PURCHASE

Bearer Notes represented by a Permanent Global Note may only be purchased by the Issuer together with the rights to receive all future payments of interest and Instalment Amounts (if any) thereon.

(F) ISSUER'S OPTIONS

Any option of the Issuer provided for in the Conditions of any Notes issued by it while such Notes are represented by a Global Note or Global Note Certificate shall be exercised by the Issuer giving notice to the Noteholders within the time limits set out in, and containing the information required by, the Conditions, except that the notice shall not be required to contain the serial numbers of Notes drawn in the case of a partial exercise of an option and accordingly no drawing of Notes shall be required. In the event that any option of the Issuer is exercised in respect of some but not all of the Notes of any Tranche or Series which are represented by a Global Note or Global Note Certificate, the rights of accountholders with a clearing system in respect of the Notes will be governed by the standard procedures of Euroclear, Clearstream Luxembourg or any Alternative Clearing System (as the case may be).

(G) NOTEHOLDERS' OPTIONS

Any option of the Noteholders provided for in the Conditions of any Notes while such Notes are represented by a Global Note or Global Note Certificate may be exercised by the holder of the Global Note or Global Note Certificate delivering to the Principal Paying Agent (in the case of Bearer Notes) or Registrar (in the case of Registered Notes), within the time limits relating to the deposit of Notes or Note Certificates with a Paying Agent or Transfer Agent set out in the Conditions, a notice stating the principal amount of Notes in respect of which the option is exercised (but which shall not be required to state the serial numbers of such Notes) and at the same time presenting the Global Note or Global Note Certificate to the Principal Paying Agent or Registrar (as the case may be), or to a Paying Agent or Transfer Agent acting on behalf of the Principal Paying Agent, for notation.

(H) NOTICES

So long as any Notes are represented by a Global Note or Global Note Certificate and such Global Note or Global Note Certificate is held on behalf of a clearing system, notices to the holders of such Notes may be given by delivery of the relevant notice to that clearing system for communication by it to entitled accountholders in substitution for publication as required by the Conditions or by delivery of the relevant notice to the holder of such Global Note or Global Note Certificate, except that so long as such Notes are admitted to trading on, and listed on the Official List of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange, notices shall also be published in a leading newspaper having general circulation in Luxembourg (which is expected to be the Luxemburger Wort) or published on the website of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (www.bourse.lu).

(I) PARTLY PAID NOTES

The provisions relating to Partly Paid Notes are not set out in this Base Prospectus, but will be contained in the relevant Final Terms and thereby in the Global Note or Global Note Certificate relating thereto. While any instalments of the subscription moneys due from the holder of Partly Paid Notes are overdue, no interest in a Global Note or Global Note Certificate representing such Notes may be exchanged for an interest in a Permanent Global Note or for Notes in definitive form (as the case may be). If any Noteholder fails to pay any instalment due on any Partly Paid Notes within the time specified, the Issuer may forfeit such Notes and shall have no further obligation to their holder in respect of them.

DESCRIPTION OF THE ISSUER

Business Overview of the Fortum Group

The Issuer and its subsidiaries (the "Group") is (according to the Group's estimates) one of the leading power and heat companies in the Nordic region. The Group operates in the Nordic region, Russia and in the Baltic Rim area. The Group's activities cover the generation, distribution and sale of electricity and heat, its main products are electricity, heat and steam. The Issuer is the parent company of the Group, owning the operating subsidiaries.

The Group's strategy is based on the company's core competence in CO₂-free nuclear and hydro power, energy and resource efficient combined heat and power production as well as the company's expertise and proven track-record in operating in competitive energy markets. In the coming years, the Group will continue to leverage its strong position in the Nordic power and heat market while creating solid earnings growth in Russia.

The Group was formed in 1998 by the merger of the IVO Group and the Neste Group, two Finnish industrial groups with extensive operations in the energy sector in the Nordic countries and internationally. The new combined company, Fortum Oyj, was incorporated in Finland on 7 February 1998 and registered in the Finnish Trade Register as a public limited liability company with registration number 1463611-4, and was listed on the Helsinki Stock Exchange in December 1998. The Group started its business activities in February 1998, and has continued to focus on its core businesses in the Nordic countries and the Baltic Rim area, by selling off non-core assets and re-distributing capital within the region. The Group operates under the laws of Finland. The life of the Group is indefinite.

The Issuer is domiciled in Espoo and its main office is situated at Keilaniementie 1, Espoo, Finland and the main office's telephone number is + 358 10 4511.

In April 2005, the Group's oil businesses were successfully separated from the Group by distributing 85 per cent. of Neste Oil shares as dividends to the Issuer's shareholders and by selling the remaining 15 per cent. of Neste Oil shares to institutional and individual investors. Neste Oil was subsequently listed on the Helsinki Stock Exchange on 18 April 2005. In 2008, the Group acquired Russian power and heat company Territorial Generating Company 10 (TGC-10), renamed OAO Fortum.

As at 31 December 2010, the Group's sales totalled EUR 6.3 billion with operating profit of EUR 1.7 billion. The average number of employees during the year 2010 was 11,156. As at 31 December 2010, the number of employees totalled 10,585. The Group's shares are quoted on the main list of the Helsinki Stock Exchange (NASDAQ OMX).

As of the date hereof, the Group had a total of approximately 888.4 million (888.4 million at 31 December 2010) shares outstanding, of which the Finnish State holds 50.76 per cent (50.76 per cent. at 31 December 2010) and the proportion of nominee registrations and direct foreign shareholders is 30.0 per cent. (30.2 per cent. at 31 December 2010). Representatives of the Finnish State are required to observe certain guidelines in connection with the exercise of the Finnish State's rights as shareholder and the Finnish State's internal decision-making relating to the administration of its ownership interests in state-controlled entities.

Business Strategy

The Group's strategy is based on the company's core competence in CO₂-free nuclear and hydro power, energy and resource efficient combined heat and power production as well as the company's expertise and proven track-record in operating in competitive energy markets. In the coming years, the Group will continue to leverage its strong position in the Nordic power and heat market while creating solid earnings growth in Russia.

Further opportunities for future growth stem from the need for CO₂-free and energy efficient solutions, and increasing demand in fast growing, liberalising energy markets, especially in emerging Euro-Asian countries. Coupled with the integration of the European energy market and with the Group's Russian business' increasing weight, the importance of the Nordic power price as the main driver of the Group's earnings will gradually decrease. The existing electricity distribution and retail sales businesses will continue to have a substantial role in the Nordic market. In other regions, the Group sees more attractive earnings and growth prospects in power and heat generation.

Financial results

The overall Nordic and Russian power consumption continued to increase in 2010. Industrial activity has clearly picked up in the Group's key market areas and the Russian economy has continued a solid path of recovery.

In 2010 the Group sales were EUR 6,296 million (compared to EUR 5,435 million in 2009). The Group operating profit totalled EUR 1,708 million (compared to EUR 1,782 million in 2009). High power forward prices at the end of 2010 caused mark-to-market valuation of electricity derivatives to decrease the Group's operating profit. The effect on the operating profit for the full of 2010 was EUR minus 216 million. The accounting treatment did not have an impact on the Group's cash flow or comparable operating profit. The Group's comparable operating profit for 2010 was EUR 1,833 million (compared to EUR 1,888 million in 2009). Non-recurring items, mark-to-market effects and nuclear fund adjustments during the financial year amounted to EUR minus 125 million (compared to EUR minus 106 million in 2009). The share of non-recurring items was EUR 93 million (compared to EUR 29 million in 2009) and consisted of sales gains from the Swedegas and Karlskoga Energi & Miljö shares in Sweden as well as the Kurgan Generating Company, Federal Grid Company and St. Petersburg Sales Company shares in Russia.

During 2010, the average Swedish krona ("SEK") rate was approximately 10 per cent. stronger against the euro compared to 2009. The higher average SEK rate impacted the comparable operating profit by approximately EUR 103 million. This mainly impacted the Power Division. The strong SEK had a negative impact on the cash flow.

As at 31 December 2010 the share of profits of associates and joint ventures was EUR 62 million (compared to EUR 21 million in 2009). The improvement was mainly due to the improvement in the contribution from Hafslund ASA.

As at 31 December 2010 the Group's net financial expenses decreased to EUR 155 million (compared to EUR 167 million in 2009). The decrease is attributable to lower interest expenses. The change in fair value of financial instruments was EUR 12 million (compared to EUR minus 1 million in 2009).

As at 31 December 2010 profit before taxes was EUR 1,615 million (compared to EUR 1,636 million in 2009).

Taxes for 2010 totalled EUR 261 million (compared to EUR 285 million in 2009). The tax rate according to the income statement was 16.2 per cent. (compared to 17.4 per cent. in 2009).

As at 31 December 2010 profit for the period was EUR 1,354 million (compared to EUR 1,351 million in 2009). The Group's earnings per share were EUR 1.46 (compared to EUR 1.48 in 2009). The effect on earnings per share by the accounting treatment of derivatives was EUR minus 0.18. As at 31 December 2010 non-controlling (minority) interests amounted to EUR 54 million (compared to EUR 39 million in 2009), these are mainly attributable to Fortum Värme Holding AB, in which the city of Stockholm has a 50 per cent. economic interest.

As at 31 December 2010 return on capital employed was 11.6 per cent. (compared to 12.1 per cent. in 2009), and return on shareholders' equity was 15.7 per cent. (compared to 16.0 per cent. in 2009).

The Group's net debt to EBITDA for 2010 stood at 3.0 (compared to 2.6 in 2009). The comparable net debt to EBITDA was 2.8.

Organisational Structure

In October 2009 the Group restructured its organisation into four business divisions and four corporate staff functions in order to increase the organisation's efficiency, performance, accountability and simplicity.

The business divisions are: Power, Heat, Russia, Electricity Solutions and Distribution. The Electricity Solutions and Distribution ("ESD") division consists of two business areas: Distribution and Electricity

Sales (formerly Markets). The reportable segments under the International Financial Reporting Standard ("IFRS") have been renamed correspondingly.

The reorganisation did not lead to a change in the Group's external financial reporting structure as the reportable segments have remained the same. However there have been some minor changes to the composition of the segments that have taken effect from the beginning of January 2010. The changes have also been reflected in 2009 figures. The changes relate mainly to the transfer of the Power division's Power Solutions business area to Russia and Heat divisions as well as the establishment of the centralised Trading and Industrial Intelligence unit.

Corporate structure

The Issuer is the parent company of the Group, and owns the Group's operating subsidiaries. The Issuer does not have any significant business operations and its financial results are based primarily on cash flow and dividends from its subsidiaries.

Business Analysis by Division

Power

The Power division consists of the Group's power generation, physical operation and trading as well as expert services for power producers.

The Power division generates and sells power mainly to the Nordic electricity market. The Power division employed 1,819 people at the end of 2010.

In 2010, the Power division generated in the Nordic countries 46.3 terawatt hours ("TWh") (compared to 43.7 TWh in 2009) of which approximately 93 per cent. (compared to 97 per cent. in 2009) was CO₂-free. During 2010 the Power division generated 2.6 TWh more power than in 2009. Especially thermal generation increased mainly due to high electricity prices and the end of Meri-Pori lease contract (the Group leased out its 308 MW share in Meri-Pori power plant from January 2007 to the end of June 2010 and the production capacity was reverted to the Group on 1 July 2010). Also nuclear generation volumes improved slightly.

Eight out of the Group's ten owned or associated nuclear power reactors operated well during 2010. Two Swedish power reactors had problems in 2010: Forsmark 2 and Oskarshamn 3. Forsmark 2 was able to overcome the problems related to modernised valves by replacing them with a different type and it has been running at full capacity since the beginning of November 2010. Oskarshamn 3 faced significant production problems with its renewed turbine, which caused production losses up to the end of December. Currently it is running at an approximately 1,050 megawatt ("MW") power level, which corresponds to the power level before the capacity increases. To secure availability of nuclear power during the winter months, the plan has been to run the unit at this power level and test runs have been commissioned starting 1 March 2011 and will continue until the scheduled shut down for maintenance on 22 May 2011.

In 2010, the division achieved a Nordic power price of EUR 49.7 per megawatt hour ("MWh"), which was at about the same level as in 2009. The clearly higher spot prices at the Nordic power exchange Nord Pool almost offset lower hedge prices. The total achieved price remained stable due to the higher prices achieved in thermal power during peak hours.

In 2010, the Power division's comparable operating profit decreased to EUR 1,298 million (compared to EUR 1,454 million in 2009). Continued capacity upgrades and prolonged modernisation programmes in Swedish associated nuclear generating companies, a production mix with increased thermal generation volumes together with an increase in nuclear-related provisions and the Loviisa 3 project increased costs in 2010 compared to 2009.

In 2010, the Power division's sales totalled EUR 2,702 million (compared to EUR 2,531 million in 2009) and operating profit totalled EUR 1,132 million (compared to EUR 1,363 million in 2009).

Heat

The Heat division consists of combined heat and power ("CHP") generation, district heating activities and business-to-business heating solutions in the Nordic countries and other parts of the Baltic Rim.

The Heat division employed 2,394 people at the end of 2010.

The Heat division's heat sales during 2010 amounted to 26.1 TWh (compared to 22.9 TWh in 2009) and were mainly generated in the Nordic countries. During 2010, power sales volumes totalled 6.5 TWh (compared to 4.4 TWh in 2009). The increased volumes were a result of cold weather during the winter months, increased industrial sales and new CHP capacity in Finland and Estonia.

In 2010, the Heat division's comparable operating profit was EUR 275 million (compared to EUR 231 million in 2009). The increase was mainly due to higher volumes and power prices. Fuel costs were higher than in the previous year. In Sweden, the negative peak-load impact on production costs during the winter was offset by a stronger SEK currency.

During the last quarter of 2010, commercial operation began at two new CHP plants, one in Częstochowa in Poland and one in Pärnu in Estonia. The Group also started site activities on a new waste-to-energy CHP plant in Klaipėda in Lithuania, and the construction of a new waste-to-energy plant in Brista, near Stockholm in Sweden. In addition, the Group signed an agreement to acquire two Polish power and heat companies from the Polish State. The companies were sold as part of the privatisation of the power and heat sector in Poland. Also in the last quarter of 2010 an agreement was signed on the divestment of the Group's heat operations outside the Stockholm area to Macquarie managed funds, the divestment was recently completed on 31 March 2011.

During the year the Heat division divested some 30 plants comprising smaller heat-only boilers. The restructuring activities support the Group's updated strategy that focuses on the further development of CHP production.

In Finland, taxes on fuels for heat production as well as taxes on electricity were increased considerably as of 1 January 2011. Tax increases will be reflected in the end-user prices of heat and electricity accordingly.

In 2010, the Heat division's sales totalled EUR 1,770 million (compared to EUR 1,399 million in 2009) and operating profit totalled EUR 303 million (compared to EUR 252 million in 2009).

Russia

The Russia division consists of power and heat generation and sales in Russia. It includes OAO Fortum and the Group's over 25 per cent. holding in TGC-1 which is an associated company and is accounted for using the equity method.

The Russia division employed 4,294 people at the end of 2010.

OAO Fortum operates in the well-developed industrial regions of the Urals and in oil-producing western Siberia. In 2010 power sales volumes were 18.7 TWh (compared to 19.5 TWh in 2009) and heat sales volumes were 26.8 TWh (compared to 25.6 TWh in 2009). During 2010, OAO Fortum sold 61 per cent. of its power production at the liberalised electricity price. In 2010, the division's comparable operating profit was EUR 8 million (compared to an operating loss of EUR 20 million in 2009). The improved result was mainly due to higher electricity market prices and OAO Fortum's efficiency improvement programme, which progressed well.

OAO Fortum's business is typically very seasonal. Its results are usually strongest during the first and the last quarters of the year.

The Russian wholesale power sector reform is proceeding. From 1 January 2010 onwards, 60 per cent. of all power generated in Russia was sold on the competitive market. The share increased to 80 per cent. at the beginning of July 2010 and the wholesale power market has been fully liberalised from the beginning of 2011. The new rules for the long-term capacity market starting from 2011 have been approved by the Russian government. The generation capacity built after 2007 under government capacity supply agreements ("CSA") will receive guaranteed payments for a period of 10 years. Prices for capacity under CSA are defined in order to ensure a sufficient return on investments. Capacity that is not under CSA will compete in competitive capacity selection ("CCS"). In December 2010 the first CCS for the year 2011 was held in accordance with the new rules of the long-term capacity market.

Upon completion, OAO Fortum's new capacity will be a key driver for solid earnings growth in Russia as it will bring income from new volumes sold and receive considerably higher capacity payments than the old capacity. The payments for the new capacity will be approximately 3-4 times higher than the average price for the old capacity. The average price of old capacity is expected to be approximately RUB 165,000/MW/month for OAO Fortum.

In light of the recovering post-crisis demand and the development of the Russian capacity market, the Group has accelerated the schedule of OAO Fortum's committed 2,300 MW-investment programmes and plans to commission the last new units in 2014. The value of the remaining part of the investment programme, calculated at the exchange rates prevailing at the end of December 2010, is estimated to be approximately EUR 1.5 billion as of 1 January 2011.

In December 2010, a new unit was inaugurated at the Group's Tyumen CHP-1 power plant. The unit is the first of the new units in the Group's extensive investment programme in Russia; the first unit is estimated will be in commercial operation during the first half of 2011 and additional two units are estimated to start their commercial operation during mid-year 2011.

OAO Fortum's efficiency improvement programme is proceeding according to plans. Efficiency improvements are expected to be approximately EUR 100 million in 2011.

In 2010, the Russia division's sales totalled EUR 804 million (compared to EUR 632 million in 2009) and operating profit totalled EUR 53 million (compared to operating loss EUR 20 million in 2009).

Electricity Solutions and Distribution

The Electricity Solutions and Distribution division is responsible for the Group's electricity sales and distribution activities and consists of two business areas: Distribution and Electricity Sales.

Distribution

The Group owns and operates distribution and regional networks and distributes electricity to a total of 1.6 million customers in Sweden, Finland, Norway and Estonia.

The Distribution business area employed 962 people at the end of 2010. During 2010, electricity transmission via the regional distribution network in Sweden totalled 14.8 TWh (compared to 13.6 TWh in 2009) and 2.8 TWh (compared to 2.8 TWh in 2009) in Finland. The comparable operating profit of the Distribution business area was EUR 307 million in 2010 (compared to EUR 262 million in 2009). The improvement was mainly due to higher sales and was partly offset by higher variable, maintenance and fault repair costs. In addition, the stronger Swedish krona ("SEK") increased the comparable operating profit by some EUR 20 million.

The Distribution business area improves efficiency through automation and by focusing on its core processes. As a consequence, some field operations were outsourced during the fourth quarter.

As at 31 December 2010, the Distribution business area sales totalled EUR 963 million (compared to EUR 800 million in 2009) and operating profit totalled EUR 321 million (compared to EUR 263 million in 2009).

Electricity Sales

The Electricity Sales business area is responsible for retail sales of electricity to a total of 1.2 million private and business customers in Sweden, Finland and Norway. Electricity Sales buys its electricity from the Nordic power exchange.

The Electricity Sales business area employed 525 people at the end of 2010.

During 2010, the business area's electricity sales volumes totalled 29.8 TWh (compared to 30.0 TWh in 2009). The restructuring of the unprofitable Business Market segment started in February 2010 and has impacted the sales volume of the Electricity Sales business area from the fourth quarter of 2010 onwards.

Colder than normal weather conditions and the low hydro situation that drove market spot prices significantly up, were the main reasons for the lower sales margins. This, combined with the price peaks during the first quarter, resulted in a lower comparable operating profit for 2010 which totalled EUR 11 million (compared to EUR 22 million in 2009).

As at 31 December 2010, the Electricity Sales business area sales totalled EUR 1,798 million (compared to EUR 1,449 million in 2009) and operating profit totalled EUR 46 million (compared to EUR 29 million in 2009).

Recent Developments

In 2011, the Group announced the following developments:

- (a) In November 2010, the Group signed an agreement to acquire two Polish power and heat companies from the Polish State. The companies were sold as part of the privatisation of the power and heat sector in Poland. The acquisition significantly increases the Group's power production capacity in Poland. The investment amounted to approximately EUR 22 million and the final closing of the acquisition was made after the year end, on 3 January 2011.
- (b) In December 2010, the Group inaugurated a new unit at its combined heat and power plant Tyumen CHP-1 in the city of Tyumen in Western Siberia. The new unit was the first of seven units in the Group's extensive investment programme in Russia; the unit started its commercial operation in early February 2011.
- (c) In April 2011 the Group finalised the agreement to sell its 25 per cent. shareholding in the Finnish transmission system operator Fingrid Oyj to the Finnish State and Ilmarinen Mutual Pension Insurance Company. The Finnish State (with Ministry of Employment and the Economy and the National Emergency Supply Agency as the shareholders) bought approximately 81 per cent. and Ilmarinen approximately 19 per cent. of the Group's 25 per cent. stake in Fingrid. The sales price is EUR 325 million. Consequently, the Group expects to book a gain of roughly EUR 200 million in its second quarter of 2011 financial results which includes the Group's stake in Fingrid's profits for the first quarter of 2011, which correspond approximately to EUR 0.22 per share. The Group sold its holding in Fingrid as a result of the EU's third energy market package that calls for the separation of high voltage transmission and power generation. The package entered into force in September 2009.
- (d) In December 2010, the Group's associated company Hafslund ASA, of which the Group owns 34.1 per cent., announced the sale of shares in its fully-owned subsidiary Hafslund Fibernett AS for a sales price of Norwegian krona ("NOK") 1,477 million (approx. EUR 188 million). Hafslund made a gain of approximately NOK 900 million (approx. EUR 114 million), consequently, the Group made a gain of EUR 38 million corresponding to approximately EUR 0.04 per share. The gain was made in the first quarter of 2011 as profit from associated companies.
- (e) In March 2011 the Group's divestment of heat operations outside Stockholm to Macquarie European Infrastructure Fund II ("MEIFII") and Macquarie Power and Infrastructure Corporation ("MPIC") was completed. The Stockholm City Board and the Swedish Competition Authority have given their approval to the transaction. Fortum divests its district heat operations and heat production facilities with a gross sales price of approximately EUR 220 million. The major part of the divested operations was owned by the Group's subsidiary Fortum Värme in which the city of Stockholm has a 50 per cent. economic interest. The Group registers a sales gain with a minor effect on earnings per share in the first quarter 2011. The sales gain is presented in Heat Division.

TAXATION

Finnish Taxation

The comments below are of a general nature based on the Issuer's understanding of current law and practice in Finland. They relate only to the position of persons who are the absolute beneficial owners of the Notes, Receipts, Coupons and Talons and who are not resident in Finland for tax purposes. They may not apply to certain classes of person such as dealers. Prospective holders of the Notes who are not resident in Finland for tax purposes and are in any doubt as to their personal tax position or who may be subject to tax in any other jurisdiction should consult their professional advisers. This summary is based upon the law as in effect on the date of this Base Prospectus and is subject to any change in law that may take effect after such date. It should be noted that the tax laws of Finland may be amended with retrospective application.

Taxation of Notes

Under present Finnish domestic tax law payments in respect of the Notes, the Receipts, the Coupons and the Talons will be exempt from all taxes, duties, fees and imports of whatever nature, imposed or levied by or within the Republic of Finland or by any municipality or other political subdivision or taxing authority thereof or therein, except such taxation the holder of the Note, Receipt, Coupon or Talon to which any such payments relates is subject to thereon by reason of such holder being connected with the Republic of Finland otherwise than solely by his holding of such Note, Receipt, Coupon or Talon or the receipt of income therefrom.

Finnish Capital Gains Taxes

Holders of Notes, Receipts, Coupons and Talons who are not resident in Finland for tax purposes and who do not engage in trade or business through a permanent establishment or a fixed place of business in Finland to which their investment in the Notes is effectively connected will not be subject to Finnish taxes or duties on gains realised on the sale or redemption of the Notes, Receipts, Coupons and Talons.

Luxembourg Taxation

The following is a general description of certain Luxembourg tax considerations relating to the Notes. It specifically contains information on taxes on the income from the Notes withheld at source and provides an indication as to whether the Issuer assumes responsibility for the withholding of taxes at the source. It does not purport to be a complete analysis of all tax considerations relating to the Notes, whether in Luxembourg or elsewhere. Prospective purchasers of the Notes should consult their own tax advisers as to which countries' tax laws could be relevant to acquiring, holding and disposing of the Notes, payments of interest, principal and/or other amounts under the Notes and the consequences of such actions under the tax laws of Luxembourg. This summary is based upon the law as in effect on the date of this Base Prospectus. The information contained within this section is limited to withholding taxation issues, and prospective investors should not apply any information set out below to other areas, including (but not limited to) the legality of transactions involving the Notes.

All payments of interest and principal by a paying agent in the meaning of the EU Savings Directive in the context of the holding, disposal, redemption or repurchase of the Notes can be made free and clear of any withholding or deduction for or on account of any taxes of whatsoever nature imposed, levied, withheld, or assessed by Luxembourg or any political subdivision or taxing authority thereof or therein, in accordance with the applicable Luxembourg law, subject however to:

- (i) the application of the Luxembourg law of 21 June 2005 implementing the European Union Savings Directive (Council Directive 2003/48/EC) and several agreements concluded with certain dependent or associated territories and providing for the possible application of a withholding tax (20 per cent. from 1 July 2008 to 30 June 2011 and 35 per cent. from 1 July 2011) on interest paid to certain non Luxembourg resident investors (individuals and certain types of entities called "residual entities") in the event of the Issuer appointing a paying agent in Luxembourg within the meaning of the above-mentioned directive (see, paragraph "EU Savings Tax Directive" below) or agreements;
- (ii) the application as regards Luxembourg resident individuals (in the context of their private wealth) of the Luxembourg law of 23 December 2005 which has introduced a 10 per cent. withholding tax on savings income (i.e. with certain exemptions, savings income within the meaning of the Luxembourg law of 21 June 2005 implementing the European Union Savings Directive (Council Directive 2003/48/EC)). This law applies to savings income accrued as from 1 July 2005 and paid as from 1 January 2006.

Pursuant to the law of 23 December 2005 as amended by the law of 17 July 2008, Luxembourg resident individuals can opt to self declare and pay a 10 per cent. levy on interest payments made by paying agents located in a Member State of the European Union other than Luxembourg, a Member State of the European Economic Area or in a State or territory which has concluded an agreement directly relating to the EU Savings Directive on the taxation of savings income.

The 10 per cent. withholding tax as described above or the 10 per cent levy are final when Luxembourg resident individuals are acting in the context of the management of their private wealth.

Responsibility for the withholding of tax in application of the above-mentioned Luxembourg laws of 21 June 2005 and 23 December 2005 is assumed by the Luxembourg paying agent within the meaning of these laws and not by the Issuer.

EU Savings Tax Directive

Under EC Council Directive 2003/48/EC (the "EU Savings Directive") on the taxation of savings income, each Member State is required to provide to the tax authorities of another Member State details of payments of interest or other similar income (within the meaning of the EU Savings Directive) paid by a paying agent in the meaning of the EU Savings Directive within its jurisdiction to, or collected by such a paying agent for, an individual resident or certain limited types of entity established in that other Member State; however, for a transitional period, Austria and Luxembourg may instead apply a withholding system in relation to such payments, deducting tax at rates rising over time to 35 per cent., unless in the case of Luxembourg the beneficial owner of the interest payments opts for one of the two information exchange procedures available. The transitional period is to terminate at the end of the first full fiscal year following agreement by certain non-EU countries to the exchange of information relating to such payments.

A number of non-EU countries, and certain dependent or associated territories of certain Member States, have adopted similar measures (either provision of information or transitional withholding) in relation to payments made by a paying agent within its jurisdiction to, or collected by such a paying agent for, an individual resident or certain limited types of entity established in a Member State. In addition, the Member States have entered into provision of information or transitional withholding arrangements with certain of those dependent or associated territories in relation to payments made by a person in a Member State to, or collected by such a person for, an individual resident or certain limited types of entity established in one of those territories.

The European Commission has proposed certain amendments to the EU Savings Directive, which may, if implemented, amend or broaden the scope of the requirements described above. Investors who are in any doubt as to their position should consult their professional advisers.

Terms used in this paragraph have the meanings given to them by the United States Internal Revenue Code and regulations thereunder.

Each Dealer has agreed that, except as permitted by the Dealer Agreement, it will not offer, sell or deliver Notes, (i) as part of their distribution at any time or (ii) otherwise until 40 days after the completion of the distribution of the Notes comprising the relevant Tranche, as certified to the Principal Paying Agent or the Issuer by such Dealer (or, in the case of a sale of a Tranche of Notes to or through more than one Dealer, by each of such Dealers as to the Notes of such Tranche purchased by or through it, in which case the Principal Paying Agent or the Issuer shall notify each such Dealer when all such Dealers have so certified) within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons, and such Dealer will have sent to each dealer to which it sells Notes during the distribution compliance period relating thereto a confirmation or other notice setting forth the restrictions on offers and sales of the Notes within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons.

In addition, until 40 days after the commencement of the offering of Notes comprising any Tranche, any offer or sale of Notes within the United States by any dealer (whether or not participating in the offering) may violate the registration requirements of the Securities Act.

Each issuance of Index-Linked Interest Notes or Dual Currency Notes shall be subject to such additional U.S. selling restrictions as the Issuer and the relevant Dealer may agree as a term of the issuance and purchase of such Notes, which additional selling restrictions shall be set out in the applicable Final Terms.

Public Offer Selling Restrictions Under the Prospectus Directive

In relation to each Member State of the European Economic Area which has implemented the Prospectus Directive (each, a "Relevant Member State"), each Dealer has represented, warranted and agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent, warrant and agree, that with effect from and including the date on which the Prospectus Directive is implemented in that Relevant Member State (the "Relevant Implementation Date") it has not made and will not make an offer of Notes which are the subject of the offering contemplated by the Base Prospectus as completed by the Final Terms in relation thereto (or are the subject of the offering contemplated by a Drawdown Prospectus, as the case may be) to the public in that Relevant Member State except that it may, with effect from and including the Relevant Implementation Date, make an offer of such Notes to the public in that Relevant Member State:

- (a) Qualified investors: at any time to any legal entity which is a qualified investor as defined in the Prospectus Directive;
- (b) Fewer than 100 offerees: at any time to fewer than 100 or, if the Relevant Member State has implemented the relevant provision of the 2010 PD Amending Directive, 150, natural or legal persons (other than qualified investors as defined in the Prospectus Directive), subject to obtaining the prior consent of the relevant Dealer or Dealers nominated by the Issuer for any such offer; or
- (c) Other exempt offers: at any time in any other circumstances falling within Article 3(2) of the Prospectus Directive, provided that no such offer of Notes referred to in (a) to (c) above shall require the Issuer or any Dealer to publish a prospectus pursuant to Article 3 of the Prospectus Directive, or supplement a prospectus pursuant to Article 16 of the Prospectus Directive.

For the purposes of this provision, the expression an "offer of Notes to the public" in relation to any Notes in any Relevant Member State means the communication in any form and by any means of sufficient information on the terms of the offer and the Notes to be offered so as to enable an investor to decide to purchase or subscribe the Notes, as the same may be varied in that Member State by any measure implementing the Prospectus Directive in that Member State, (and amendments thereto, including the 2010 PD Amending Directive, to the extent implemented in the Relevant Member State), and includes any relevant implementing measure in the Relevant Member State and the expression "2010 PD Amending Directive" means Directive 2010/73/EU.

 - (ii) it has not offered or sold and will not offer or sell any Notes other than to persons:

- (c) General compliance: it has complied and will comply with all applicable provisions of the FSMA with respect to anything done by it in relation to any Notes in, from or otherwise involving the United Kingdom.

The Notes issued under the programme have not been and will not be registered under the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act of Japan (Act No. 25 of 1948, as amended; the "FIEA") and, accordingly, each Dealer has agreed and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to agree that it will not offer or sell any Notes directly or indirectly, in Japan or to, or for the benefit of, a resident of Japan (as defined under Item 5, Paragraph 1, Article 6 of the Foreign Exchange and Foreign Trade Act (Act No. 228 of 1949, as amended)), or to others for re-offering or resale, directly or indirectly, in Japan or to, or for the benefit of, a resident of Japan except under circumstances which will result in an exemption from the registration requirements of, and otherwise in compliance with the FIEA and all applicable laws, regulations and guidelines promulgated by the relevant Japanese governmental and regulatory authorities and in effect at the relevant time.

The Dealer Agreement provides that the Dealers shall not be bound by any of the restrictions relating to any specific jurisdiction (set out above) to the extent that such restrictions shall, as a result of change(s) or change(s) in official interpretation, after the date hereof, of applicable laws and regulations, no longer be applicable but without prejudice to the obligations of the Dealers described in the paragraph headed "General" above.

Selling restrictions may be supplemented or modified with the agreement of the Issuer. Any such supplement or modification will be set out in the relevant Final Terms (in the case of a supplement or modification relevant only to a particular Tranche of Notes) or in a supplement to this Base Prospectus.

Litigation

Save as disclosed in this Base Prospectus, the Issuer is not or has not been involved in any governmental, legal or arbitration proceedings (including any such proceedings which are pending or threatened of which the Issuer is aware) during the 12 months before the date of this Base Prospectus which may have, or have had in the recent past, significant effects on the financial position or profitability of the Issuer and its subsidiaries taken as a whole.

Two subsidiaries of Fortum, Grangemouth CHP Limited and Fortum O&M (UK) Limited, are defendants in a court case regarding greenhouse gas emissions allowances in the High Court of Justice in London. Grangemouth CHP Limited is a party to an Electricity Supply Agreement with Ineos Manufacturing Scotland Limited, pursuant to which Grangemouth CHP Limited provides electricity from its CHP plant to the Grangemouth site in Scotland until April 2016. Ineos Manufacturing Scotland Limited claims that it is entitled to all of the emissions allowances allocated under the EU ETS scheme for greenhouse gas emission allowance trading with respect to the CHP plant. Grangemouth CHP Limited denies this claim. The case was stayed in 2008, but the stay was lifted in late 2009. The court decision is likely to be rendered in late 2010 or early 2011.

On 2 June 2006, the Finnish Competition Authority gave its conditional approval to the transaction by which Fortum acquired control in E.ON Finland Oyj. On 3 July 2006, Fortum appealed against the decision to the Market Court. In March 2008, the Finnish Market Court decision overruled the conditional decision given by the Finnish Competition Authority in June 2006 on the acquisition of E.ON Finland. In their ruling, the Market Court stated that the Finnish Competition Authority had no grounds for setting conditions, because Fortum cannot be considered to have a dominant position in the power generation and wholesale market. According to the Market Court, the relevant geographical market area in power generation and wholesale consist of at least Finland and Sweden. The Finnish Competition authority has appealed the decision to the Supreme Administrative Court.

In addition to the litigations described above, some Group companies are involved in disputes incidental to their business. In management's opinion the outcome of such disputes will not have material effect on the Group's financial position.

Associated companies

In Finland, Fortum is participating in the country's fifth nuclear power plant unit, Olkiluoto 3, through the shareholding in Teollisuuden Voima Oyj (TVO) with an approximately 25 per cent. share representing some 400 MW in capacity. In January 2009, the constructor TVO disclosed information, confirmed by the plant supplier, consortium AREVA-Siemens that the construction of the unit is delayed and the unit is estimated to start up in June 2012. In October 2009 TVO informed that the start-up of the plant may be postponed even beyond June 2012. TVO has requested a re-analysis of the time schedule from AREVA-Siemens. In June 2009, TVO informed that the arbitration filed in December by AREVA-Siemens concerning Olkiluoto 3 delay and related costs amounted to EUR 1.0 billion. In response, TVO has filed in April 2009 a counterclaim for costs and losses that TVO is incurring due to the delay and other defaults on the part of the supplier. The value of TVO's counterclaim is currently approximately EUR 1.4 billion.
